STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni VICTORIÆ, Britanniarum Reginæ, Vicesimo Primo & Vicesimo Secundo.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster, the Thirtieth Day of April, Anno Domini 1857, in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith: And from thence continued, by several Prorogations, to the Third Day of December 1857; being the Second Session of the Seventeenth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.'

CAP. I.

An Act to indemnify the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in respect of certain Issues of their Notes, and to confirm such Issues, and to authorize further Issues for a Time to be limited. [12th December 1857.]

'WHEREAS by the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-two, "to regulate the Issue of Bank Notes and for giving to the Governor and "Company of the Bank of England certain Privileges for a limited Period," the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are prohibited from issuing Bank of England Notes either into the Banking Department of the Bank of England or to any Persons or Person whatsoever, save in exchange for other Bank of England Notes, or for Gold Coin, or for Gold or Silver Bullion received or purchased for the Issue Department of the said Bank under the Provisions of that Act, or in exchange for Securities acquired and taken in the said Issue Department under the Provisions therein contained: And whereas under the said Act and an Order in Council issued under the Provisions thereof the Amount of Securities to be acquired and taken in the said Issue Department stands limited not to exceed the Sum of Fourteen million four hundred and seventy-five thousand Pounds: And whereas by a Letter dated the Twelfth Day of November last the First Lord of the Treasury and the Chancellor of the Exchequer informed the Governor and Deputy Governor of the Bank of England that Her Majesty's Government had observed with great Concern the serious Consequences which had ensued from the recent Failure of certain Joint Stock Banks in England and Scotland, as well as of certain large mercantile Firms chiefly connected with the American Trade; that the Discredit and Distrust which had resulted from these Events, and the Withdrawal of a large Amount of the Paper Circulation authorized by the existing Bank Acts, appeared to Her Majesty's Government to render it necessary for them to inform the Bank of England that if they should be unable in the present Emergency to meet the Demands for Discounts and Advances upon approved Securities without exceeding the Limits of their Circulation prescribed by the Act of One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, the Government would be prepared to propose to Parliament upon its meeting a Bill of Indemnity for any Excess so issued; and that, in order to prevent that temporary Relaxation of the Law being extended beyond the actual Necessities of the Occasion, Her Majesty's Government were of opinion that the Bank Terms of Discount should not be reduced below their then present Rate: And whereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England have since the said Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven issued Bank of England Notes in exchange for Securities acquired and taken in the said Issue Department beyond the Amount limited by Law, and it is expedient that the Acts of the said Governor and Company in relation to the Matters aforesaid should be confirmed, and that the Restriction on the Amount of the Securities to be acquired and taken in the said Issue Department should be suspended for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same as follows: 7 & 8 Vict. c. 32.

Issues of Bank of England Notes since 12th Nov. 1857 in excess of those authorized by Law confirmed and made valid.

I. All such Issues of Bank of England Notes as may have been made by the said Governor and Company, or by their Order or Direction, since the said Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, although beyond the Amount authorized by Law, and all Acts necessary for the making of such Issues, and for the acquiring and taking since the said Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven Securities in the Issue Department of the Bank of England beyond the Amount authorized by Law, shall be confirmed and made valid; and the said Governor and Company, and all Persons who have been concerned in such Issues or in doing or advising any such Acts as aforesaid, are hereby indemnified and discharged in respect thereof, and all Indictments and Informations, Actions, Suits, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever commenced or to be commenced against the said Governor and Company or any Person or Persons in relation to the Acts and Matters aforesaid, or any of them, are hereby discharged and made void.

The Restriction on the Amount of Securities to be taken in the Issue Department suspended.

II. So much of the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty as limits the Amount of the Securities to be acquired and taken in the Issue Department of the Bank of England shall be and be deemed to have been suspended as from the Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and shall continue suspended until the Expiration of Twenty-eight Days after the First Meeting or Sitting of Parliament in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, subject to the Proviso herein-after contained, and during such Suspension the Provisions of the said Act in relation to the Issue of Bank of England Notes shall be construed and take effect as if the Restriction on the Amount of Securities in the said Issue Department, and the Prohibition of the Increase of such Amount and of the Issue of additional Bank of England Notes thereon, had not been contained in the said Act: Provided always, that if before the Expiration of the Time herein-before limited the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give public Notice that they have reduced the minimum Rate of Interest required by them below the Rate of Ten per Centum per Annum, the said Suspension shall cease.

The Issues in excess to be reduced on or before the Expiration of the Suspension.

III. Upon or before the Expiration or Cesser of the Suspension aforesaid the Excess of Issues herein-before confirmed shall be reduced to the Amount which would have been authorized by Law if this Act had not been passed; and, subject to the Indemnity and discharge hereby given, all the Provisions of the said recited Act shall, after such Expiration or Cesser, be and remain in full Force.

Person mentioned in such Certificate, shall it be necessary to give other Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender: Provided always, that before any such Evidence shall be received it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that the Prisoner had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence against him; provided also, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any other Punishment or Punishments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence of which he shall be so found guilty.

and the Production of the Declaration in the Schedule to this Act annexed, made by the Recruit on his Attestation, and of the Certificate then signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as stated in the Declaration made by him; And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry, and has reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the boundary which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act was not the same as that of the said Township with respect to which the said inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the aforesaid William Ranger to visit the parts within the boundary proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all persons desirous of being heard before him on the subject of the said Report, and and of the boundary proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act; and did make further inquiry, and report according to the directions of the said Board.

And whereas copies of such further Report, accompanied by a notice stating that, within the time directed by the said Act, written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act; and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Reports that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Township having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; that is to say,

An Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better supplying with Water the Town of Skipton in the West Riding of the County of York."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to a district comprised within the boundary described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, and shown by the line described as "Proposed Boundary," on the map accompanying the said first printed Report to the General Board of Health, bearing date the 26th March 1857, and further described in the Appendix to the aforesaid Report (p. 23), but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order, under my hand as President of the said Board, and under their official Seal, order and direct, That from and after the day appointed for the first election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order—

1.—The Public Health Act, 1848, shall apply to the entire area comprised within the boundary described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, being the parts within which the said inquiry and further inquiry have been made, and such area shall be a District, for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to be called the Skipton District.

2.—The Local Board shall consist of nine persons resident, in the manner provided by the Act confirming this Order.

3.—One-third of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the Twenty-fifth day of March in each year subsequent to that in which the first election of the said Local Board takes place.

4.—Every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value of not less than one thousand pounds, or shall be rated to the relief of the poor of the said District, or of some township or place of which some part is within the said District, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

5.—At the first election of the said Local Board, Henry Alcock, Esquire, of Airville, Skipton, shall have the powers and perform the duties in relation to such election vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, and all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Henry Alcock, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be absent, or shall refuse or be unable to act, then Stephen Bailey Hall, Esquire, of Skipton aforesaid, shall act in his place.

6.—The fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election shall be given to the said Henry Alcock, at his residence, Airville, Skipton; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Stephen Bailey Hall, at his offices, Skipton.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Second day of February, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

President of General Board of Health.

Agreement between Commissioners of Public Works and Chelsea Hospital, dated Feb. 23, 1858.

'Thirty-

'Thirty-nine of the Statutes of the same Session, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, 'Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were empowered (amongst other things) to construct and 'complete an Embankment and Roadway along the North Bank of the River Thames from Battersea 'Bridge to Vauxhall Bridge, and that by Section Sixty-two of the said Act the said Commissioners 'were authorized to sell and dispose of and absolutely to grant and convey any Part or Parts of any 'of the Hereditaments which might be acquired under the Powers of the said Act, but which should 'not be required for the Purpose of the same Act (other than the Lands to be acquired or reclaimed 'between the Embankment and Roadway on the North Shore of the River, as therein aforesaid), and which 'they should not think proper to let on Building Leases, as therein aforesaid, subject nevertheless to 'such Stipulations and Conditions as they might think fit, and thereupon to convey and assure the 'same; and reciting that by virtue of the Provisions of the Forty-second Chapter of the Statutes passed 'in the Session held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty the Com-'missioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings were and are substituted for the Commis-'sioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the Purposes of 'the first-mentioned Act; and reciting that by the Eighty-seventh Chapter of the Statutes passed in 'the Session held in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty the last-'mentioned Commissioners were authorized to proceed with and complete the said Embankment and 'Roadway, subject to certain Alterations in the original Plans and Designs thereof, and the Time 'limited by the said first-mentioned Act for the Purpose of constructing and completing such Embank-'ment and Roadway was extended; and reciting that under and by virtue of the Statutes aforesaid or 'some of them the Piece or Parcel of Land, containing by Admeasurement Three Acres and Thirty-'seven Perches, or thereabouts, in the said Agreement now in recital afterwards described, and the Fee 'Simple and Inheritance thereof, are vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and 'Public Buildings; and reciting that the said Piece or Parcel of Land is not nor is any Part thereof 'between the Embankment and Roadway on the North Shore of the said River, but the same is 'altogether on the North Side of the Embankment Road, as appears by the Plan thereto annexed; 'and reciting that the Slip of Land tinted a Violet Colour in the said Plan, containing by Admeasure-'ment Two Roods and Thirty-two Perches, Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land containing Three 'Acres and Thirty-seven Perches, was acquired or reclaimed by the Embankment authorized by the 'therein first-mentioned Statute, and before such Embankment was Part of the North Shore of the said 'River; and reciting that by the Nineteenth Section of the said first-mentioned Statute it was enacted 'that all Lands and Hereditaments which should be acquired or reclaimed within and by the then 'intended Embankment between the then present North Shore of the said River and Line of the said 'intended Roadway might (subject nevertheless as therein mentioned) be planted or otherwise laid out 'in public Walks or Gardens by the Commissioners for executing the said Act, as they should think fit, 'but that no Houses or other Buildings should be erected on any Part thereof (except such as might be 'erected under any such Agreement as therein mentioned), and that by the Sixtieth Section of the same 'Statute it was also enacted that as regards all or any Grounds or Hereditaments which should be 'purchased and which should not be wanted for the Purposes of the said Act (but exclusive of any Lands 'which should be acquired or reclaimed between the said Embankment and Roadway and the then 'present North Shore of the River as aforesaid) it should be lawful for the said Commissioners and 'they were thereby authorized to demise and lease the same as therein mentioned; and reciting that 'the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings were willing to sell (if they had 'Power so to do) to the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital aforesaid, who were desirous of pur-'chasing the said Piece or Parcel of Land containing Three Acres and Thirty-seven Perches, therein-'after described, and the Inheritance thereof in Fee Simple in possession, at or for the Price or Sum of 'Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds, subject to the Conditions, Stipulations, and Agreements therein-'after contained; and reciting that in consequence of the aforesaid Enactments contained in the said 'Nineteenth and Sixtieth Sections of the said Statute of the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her 'said Majesty, Chapter Thirty-nine, it was considered doubtful whether the said Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Works and Public Buildings had Power to sell so much of the Premises last aforesaid as 'consisted of the said Slip of Land containing Two Roods and Thirty-two Perches, in the said Plan 'tinted with a Violet Colour, notwithstanding the said Power to sell given as aforesaid by the said 'Sixty-second Section of the same Statute; and reciting that the Parties respectively thereto, in con-'sideration of the Premises, had agreed to enter into the Agreement now in recital, but provisionally 'only, in case of the Contract for Sale by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and 'Public Buildings being confirmed by Act of Parliament, as therein-after mentioned; it is witnessed 'that the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings did for themselves and 'their Successors (but provisionally only, as therein-after mentioned) agree to sell, and the said Robert 'Lowe, Sir Edward Blakeney, and Sir Alexander Woodford, as such Commissioners of Chelsea 'Hospital aforesaid, on behalf of themselves and the other Commissioners of the said Hospital, '(in case of the Contract for Sale therein being confirmed by Act of Parliament,) did agree to 'purchase of and from the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, 'subject as therein-after mentioned, all that Piece or Parcel of Land situate, lying, and being in

'the Parish of Saint George Hanover Square in the said County of Middlesex, containing by Admeasurement Three Acres and Thirty-seven Perches, be the same more or less, near to and adjoining the Royal Hospital at Chelsea aforesaid, bounded on the West and North-west by the Gardens and Grounds belonging to the said Royal Hospital, on the North-east by the new Road forming from Chelsea New Bridge to Lower Sloane Street, Chelsea, and on the South by the Embankment Road next the River Thames, which said Piece or Parcel of Land was more particularly delineated and described in the Plan thereof drawn in the Margin of the said Agreement, or thereunto annexed, and was thereon coloured Red and Violet, and the Inheritance thereof in Fee Simple in possession, with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, at or for the Price or Sum of Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds, and the said Robert Lowe, Sir Edward Blakeney, and Sir Alexander Woodford thereby agreed that the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors or Assigns, with and out of Monies of the said Hospital applicable in that Behalf, should and would, in case of the said Contract being confirmed by Parliament, well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, their Successors or Assigns, on or before the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the said Sum of Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds (the Purchase Money aforesaid), together with Interest thereon at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum from the Thirty-first Day of December last, on a proper Conveyance of the said Piece or Parcel of Land and Premises, and the Inheritance thereof in Fee Simple in possession, being executed to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors and Assigns, by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or their Successors; and it is by the said Agreement further witnessed, that for the Considerations therein-before mentioned they the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, for themselves and their Successors, also agreed with the said Robert Lowe, Sir Edward Blakeney, and Sir Alexander Woodford, as such Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital aforesaid, that in case of the said Contract for Sale being confirmed by Parliament, and on receiving from them the said Sum of Sixteen thousand five hundred Pounds, together with such Interest thereon as aforesaid, on or before the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, they the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or their Successors, would convey or cause to be conveyed to the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors and Assigns, or as the said Commissioners should direct, the said Piece or Parcel of Land and Premises therein-before described, with the Appurtenances; subject nevertheless to a Condition in the said Conveyance to be contained for making the same void if the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors or Assigns, should at any Time or Times thereafter erect, build, or set up, or cause or permit or suffer to be erected, built, or set up, in or upon the said Piece or Parcel of Land or any Part or Parts thereof any Messuage or other Buildings whatsoever, without the Licence, Consent, and Approbation in Writing of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, their Successors or Assigns, being previously had and obtained to the Erection of such Buildings, and without submitting the Plans and Elevations for any such Erections or Buildings to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, their Successors or Assigns, for their Approval thereof, previously to any such Erections and Buildings being commenced, and also subject to a Covenant to be inserted in such Conveyance on the Part of the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors or Assigns, that they the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, their Successors or Assigns, should and would, at their own Expense, inclose and keep the Piece or Parcel of Land inclosed with an open Iron Railing of such Pattern, Height, and other Particulars and Dimensions as should be from Time to Time approved by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, their Successors or Assigns: And whereas the Sale by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of the said Piece or Parcel of Land described in the said recited Agreement to the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital aforesaid, at or for the Price or Consideration and upon the Terms respectively therein expressed, hath been approved of and authorized by the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury, and it is desirable that the same should be carried into effect, in pursuance of the said Agreement; but in consequence of the Doubt recited or mentioned in the said Agreement whether the Power of Sale contained in the said Statute, Chapter Thirty-nine of the Statutes passed in the Session of the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty, extends to such Part of the said Piece or Parcel of Land as is distinguished by a Violet Colour in the said Plan to the said Agreement, it is necessary, for the Safety of the said Purchasers under the said Agreement, that the said Sale should be confirmed by Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Agreement for the Sale approved by the Treasury.

I. Agreement confirmed.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to amend the Act concerning Non-parochial Registers, and the Acts for Marriages, and for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages, in England, and concerning Vaccination. [14th June 1858.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 92.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Ninety-two), "for enabling Courts of Justice to admit Non-"parochial Registers as Evidence of Births or Baptisms, Deaths or Burials, and Marriages," Provisions were made for the Deposit in the General Register Office of certain Non-parochial Registers, and for making the same receivable in Evidence, and other Provisions were thereby made in relation to such Registers: And whereas by Commission under the Great Seal, bearing Date the First Day of January in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, certain Persons were appointed Commissioners to inquire into the State, Custody, and Authenticity of any Registers or Records of Births or Baptisms, Deaths or Burials, and Marriages lawfully solemnized, kept in England or Wales, other than the Parochial Registers, and the Copies thereof deposited with the Diocesan Registrars, and which had not been inquired into and examined by certain former Commissioners, and also for inquiring whether any and what Measures could be beneficially adopted for collecting and arranging all or any of such Registers or Records, and for depositing the same, or Copies thereof, in the Office of the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, or for otherwise preserving the same, and also for considering and advising the proper Measures to be adopted for giving full Force and Effect, as Evidence in all Courts of Justice, to all such Registers as were found accurate and faithful, and for facilitating the Production and Reception of the same: And whereas by the Report of the said Commissioners, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, it appears that they have received Two hundred and Ninety-two Non-parochial Registers or Records, and that of this Number Two hundred and sixty-five have after Examination, as in such Report mentioned, been judged by them to be accurate and faithful, and that a Certificate to that Effect, and signed by Three of the said Commissioners, has been affixed to each of such Two hundred and sixty-five Registers or Records; that there are certain Cases, however, where only some of the Entries have been found accurate and faithful, and that in these Cases the Certificate has been so framed as clearly to distinguish such Entries from the rest, and to confine the Sanction of the Commissioners to the unobjectionable Portion of the Registers; and a complete List of the Registers thus wholly or partially sanctioned by the said Commissioners is annexed to their Report in the Appendix (A.) thereto; and the said Commissioners have by their said Report recommended that a Bill be introduced into Parliament providing that the Registers or Records in the Custody of the said Commissioners, and certified in the Manner described (and herein-before mentioned), should be deposited in the General Register Office in the Custody of the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, and should then be deemed to be in legal Custody and be receivable in Evidence in all Courts of Justice, subject as in the said Report mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Certain Registers to be deposited with the Registrar General.

I. The Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England shall receive and deposit in the General Register Office all the Registers and Records of Births, Baptisms, Deaths, Burials, and Marriages now in the Custody of the said Commissioners, and which they have by their said Report recommended to be deposited in the General Register Office in the Custody of the said Registrar General, and which are mentioned in Appendix (A.) to their said Report.

Certain other Registers may be deposited in the Office after Examination by Order of Secretary of State.

II. 'And whereas certain Non-parochial Registers and Records in addition to those mentioned in the said Report of the said Commissioners were sent to them before the Date of such Report, but too late to allow of such Registers or Records being examined and reported on by them, and other Non-parochial Registers or Records have been sent to them since the Date of their said Report:' It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to appoint or authorize Three or more Persons to inquire into the State, Custody, and Authenticity of the Non-parochial Registers or Records of Births or Baptisms, Deaths or Burials, and Marriages, which have been sent to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and have not been reported on by them, and such of the same Registers or Records as the Persons so authorized shall find accurate and faithful, they or Three of them shall certify under their Hands as fit to be placed with the other Registers and Records hereby directed to be deposited deposited in the General Register Office, and the Registrar General, upon receiving the Certificate of such Persons and an Order of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for this Purpose, shall receive such Registers and Records and deposit them in the General Register Office.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 92. ss. 5 to 19 to extend to Registers deposited under this Act.

III. The Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, from Section Five to Section Nineteen, both inclusive, and the Rules, Orders, and Regulations made under the said Act, shall extend and be applicable to the Registers or Records deposited in the General Register Office under this Act, in like Manner as the same are applicable to the Registers or Records deposited under the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty.

IV. So much of the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-six, as enacts that the Salary of the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England shall not at any Time exceed the Sum of One thousand Pounds yearly, shall be repealed; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to appoint from Time to Time the Salary of the said Registrar General, so that the same shall not at any Time exceed the Sum of Twelve hundred Pounds yearly; the Salary so to be appointed to be deemed to include the Remuneration for all Duties which under any Act or Acts of Parliament the said Registrar General is or may hereafter be appointed or required to perform.

The Information to be furnished to any Registrar by a Coroner, under the Provisions herein-before recited, shall be in Writing signed by the Coroner, which shall specify, in addition to the Particulars required as aforesaid, the Time and Place at which the Inquest was holden; and it shall not be necessary for the Coroner to sign his Name, Description, and Place of Abode in the Register, as required by Section Twenty-eight of the said Act; but the Registrar shall enter in the Column of the Register Book in which the Signature of the Informant of the Death is in other Cases required to be made a Memorandum as follows; "Information received from [inserting the Name of the Coroner], Coroner for Inquest held [Date of Inquest];" and any Register of Death containing such Entry shall be receivable in Evidence in like Manner as if signed by the Coroner as required by the Enactment in that Behalf herein-before recited; and the written Information furnished as aforesaid by the Coroner shall be kept by the Registrar until the Delivery by him to the Superintendent Registrar as required by Law, of a certified Copy of the Entry of such Death, and shall be delivered together with such certified Copy to the Superintendent Registrar, and shall be by him sent with such certified Copy to the Registrar General, and shall be thereafter kept in the General Register Office.

So much of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 100. as enacts that Vaccination Forms shall be furnished to Registrars, and delivered by them to Medical Officers and Practitioners, repealed.

13. The accumulation of the rents and profits of the said farm at Lympne, which has been commenced by the trustees for replacing a principal sum of 323*l.* belonging to the Charity, and heretofore expended in the repair and improvement of the Charity estate, shall be continued by the trustees by means of their appropriation to that purpose of the yearly sum of 20*l.* out of the same rents and profits and out of the income of the prior accumulations, until, by means of such accumulations, which already exceed the sum of 200*l.*, the whole of the said sum of 323*l.* shall be made up, unless, upon the representation of the trustees to the said Board that the interests of the Charity will be more beneficially promoted by suspending or determining such accumulations, the said Board shall authorize such suspension or determination.

14. The amount of all such accumulations, or so much thereof as shall not be otherwise applied under the following provisions, shall be invested by the trustees, with the approval of the said Board, in the purchase of real estate, to be settled upon the same trusts and for the same purposes to which the said farm at Lympne will be subject under or according to the provisions of this scheme, and until such purchase shall be made, the dividends arising from the investment to be made of the said accumulations under the following provisions shall be applicable in the same manner as the rents of such real estate if purchased would be applicable.

15. Provided, nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the trustees, with the approval of the said Board, and subject to any directions or conditions under which such approval shall have been expressed, to apply all or any part of the said existing and future accumulations, instead of investing the same in the purchase of real estate under the foregoing provision, in or towards any permanent improvement of the school-buildings or of any other buildings or property of the Charity.

16. The Charity shall also be subject specifically to the provisions of the "Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," and the "Charitable Trusts Amendment Act, 1855," relating respectively to the improvement and leasing of Charity estates, and to all other provisions of the said Acts not inconsistent with this scheme.

17. All principal monies belonging, or which shall from time to time belong to the Charity, and which shall not be presently applicable and applied to other purposes under this scheme, shall be invested, with the approval of the said Board, in the public funds, either in the name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, or in the names of four or more of the acting trustees, as their stock committee, and the dividends arising from such stock, and not otherwise appropriated by this scheme, shall be applicable as part of the general income of the Charity, and shall be paid for that purpose to or according to the direction of the managing trustees.

18. All the real estate belonging to the Charity when this scheme shall come into operation shall be vested by virtue thereof in the Official Trustee of Charity Lands, in trust for the managing trustees, and all real estate of the Charity subsequently acquired may be conveyed to such Official Trustee upon the same trust by order of the said Board.

19. The managing trustees shall from time to time pay out of the net rents and profits of the said farm and the general income of the Charity which shall remain after paying or providing for the payment of all rates, taxes, expenses of repair, and insurance, and other outgoings payable in respect of the premises, all expenses incident to the execution of the trusts, among which they may include the costs reasonably incurred by them in relation to the establishment of this scheme; and shall divide the ultimate residue of the same rents, profits, and income into two moieties, of which one shall be paid to the master of the school for his use, and the other moiety shall be carried to the account of a school fund, to be constituted by the trustees, and to be applied by them to the purposes herein-after directed.

20. The trustees shall pay out of the said school fund the general expenses of warming, cleaning, and managing the school-rooms and buildings; the wages of any servants necessarily employed for the purposes thereof; the salaries, so far as the fund will extend, of any additional teachers to be employed by the trustees in the school; and the costs of any other provisions to be made by them, with the approval of the said Board, for the extension of its benefits. They shall also be at liberty from time to time to appropriate, in their discretion, any proportion of the said fund, not exceeding altogether in any year a moiety thereof, to the increase of the emoluments of the master of the school.

21. The trustees shall cause a public examination of the scholars to be held in the month of June in every year, or at such time as shall be appointed for this purpose by the trustees, with the consent of the Board, by an examiner to be from time to time appointed by themselves, and may pay to such examiner any reasonable remuneration for the discharge of his duties, and they may also award prizes of any value, not exceeding altogether 5*l.* in any year, to the boys who, in proficiency evinced at such public examinations and in general diligence and conduct, shall be found to be most meritorious.

22. The remuneration of the said examiners and the prizes to be awarded to the scholars shall be provided out of the school fund, and all the residue thereof which shall remain after answering the payments herein-before directed or authorized to be made thereout, shall from time to time be applied by the trustees in apprenticing or otherwise advancing in life the most meritorious scholars of the said school on their leaving the same, a preference among the candidates for such advancement being always given, cæteris paribus, firstly, to the sons of fishermen resident in the borough of Folkestone, and secondly, to the sons of other inhabitants thereof.

23. The

23. The trustees shall hold meetings for auditing the accounts and transacting the general business of the Charity on the second Wednesday in each of the months of June and December in every year, or on such other days of the same months as shall have been appointed for that purpose by the trustees present at any previous meeting, or at such other times or time in every year as shall be approved for this purpose by the said Board, and also so often as shall be requisite for the due administration of the Charity; they shall also hold a meeting on the first Wednesday next after the time at which this scheme shall come into operation.

24. Special meetings of the trustees may be convened from time to time, as occasion shall be, by any two or more trustees, by notices delivered or sent by the post or otherwise to every other trustee, by the space of fourteen days at the least previously, in which the business to be discussed or transacted at such meeting shall be stated, and no other business shall be transacted thereat.

25. All notices required to be given to the trustees shall be sufficiently given by writing, either delivered personally or addressed to them by the post at their usual or last-known places of abode in England, and shall be so delivered or sent, where the circumstances of the case will permit, by the space of fourteen days at the least before the time of holding any meetings to which they shall respectively relate.

26. All meetings of the trustees shall be held in the borough of Folkestone, and, unless otherwise appointed by any such previous resolution as aforesaid, at noon, and in the schoolhouse belonging to the Charity.

27. The trustees may, at their first or any subsequent meeting, appoint a permanent chairman of their meetings, and may make like appointments as often as occasion shall be, and may remove any such chairman at any subsequent meeting; provided that no proposal for the appointment of a permanent chairman, except at such first meeting, or for his removal, shall be made or dealt with at any meeting unless a previous notice of the intention to make such proposal shall have been given in manner aforesaid by the space of fourteen days previously at the least to every trustee other than the trustee making the proposal. If there shall be no permanent chairman, or in case of his absence from any meeting, the trustees present thereat may elect a chairman thereof, and in default of such election the senior of the trustees present, according to the dates or order of their appointment, shall be the chairman of such meeting.

28. Four trustees shall form a quorum at any meeting, and so soon as that number shall be present after the time appointed for holding the same, they shall proceed to the transaction of the business thereof.

29. The resolutions and proceedings of a majority of the trustees present at any meeting shall bind the minority and all absent trustees. In the event of there being an equality of votes at any meeting, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

30. If for the space of one hour after the time appointed for holding a meeting less than five trustees shall attend, the present trustees or trustee, if any, or otherwise the clerk to the trustees, may adjourn the same to some convenient period not distant less than seven days; and all meetings may be adjourned by the resolution of the trustees present thereat.

31. The trustees shall keep minute books, in which the names of the trustees attending each meeting and all the proceedings thereat shall be recorded, and the minutes of every meeting shall be signed by the chairman and countersigned by the clerk, if any.

32. The trustees, with the approval of the said Board, may from time to time establish, revoke, or vary any regulations for the government of their proceedings under or according to this scheme.

33. The trustees may employ a clerk and a receiver for the purposes of the Charity, who shall be respectively removable at their pleasure, or may vest both those offices in the same person, and may assign to every such clerk or receiver any reasonable salary or remuneration, to be accounted as part of the expenses incident to the discharge of the trusts.

34. It shall be the duty of the clerk, subject to any special orders of the trustees, to give notice to them of all general and adjourned and special meetings, and of all business to be transacted thereat, requiring previous notice, and to attend such meetings, and to enter and keep minutes of all proceedings thereat, and to keep also the accounts of the Charity, and to make all payments directed by the trustees to be made by him, and to perform all such acts relating to the Charity as they shall from time to time reasonably require.

35. The full number of the trustees shall be ten, and all vacancies in their body may from time to time be filled up by the surviving or continuing trustees, by election to be made at their first meeting, without previous notice, or at any other meeting, after special notice given of the intention to proceed to such election thereat; but every such election shall require the approval of the said Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales to its validity, and shall not be operative without or previously to such approval; and such election, in order to its being forthwith considered by the said Board, shall be certified to the said Commissioners, at the meeting at which the same shall have been made, by the chairman thereof, by writing under his hand, countersigned by the clerk, if any.

36. The present trustees, or such of them as shall be willing to act, shall continue to be trustees of the Charity, subject to such of the following provisions as shall be respectively applicable to them.

37. Every trustee to be hereafter appointed shall become disqualified, and his office shall become vacant, on his ceasing to reside within the borough, or within 20 miles from the parish church of Folkestone, and every present or future trustee also, who shall become bankrupt or insolvent, or shall be permanently resident out of the United Kingdom, or shall become incapable to act, or shall neglect to attend any meeting of the trustees during two consecutive years, or shall resign his office by writing addressed to the clerk, if any, of the trustees, or otherwise to the other trustees for the time being, shall, in any of the said cases, cease to be a trustee.

38. This scheme shall come into operation at the expiration of two calendar months next after the passing of the Act establishing the same.

39. If any doubt or question shall arise among the trustees as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions of this scheme, or the management of the Charity, application may be made by them to the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales for direction thereon, which direction, when given, shall be binding on the trustees; and any provision hereof which may be found inconvenient or insufficient, or to require to be more exactly adapted to the circumstances of the Charity for the time being, may be modified, explained, extended, or adapted accordingly, by an order either of the Court of Chancery or of the said Commissioners, to be made upon the application of the trustees, so that no such order shall involve any deviation from the main objects and principles of this scheme.

Scheme confirmed.

I. The said Scheme shall be confirmed and take effect.

SCHEDULE.

The almshouse in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Bristol, founded in or about the year 1652, now under the management of the vestry of the said parish, and its site shall be legally vested in fee simple in the vicar and churchwardens of the same parish, and their successors, as a corporation for this purpose, upon trust that the same may be perpetually used and occupied by fifteen poor aged women of the said parish who shall possess the qualifications, and shall be admitted thereto, as herein-after provided. And the said almshouse and its inmates shall be under the management and direction of a governing body, to be called the Almshouse Committee, to consist of the said vicar and churchwardens and eight other persons to be appointed from time to time as may be necessary for constituting or keeping up their number by the vestry of the said parish, and to be removable in like manner.

2. The inmates shall be appointed by such Committee, and shall be respectable poor women of irreproachable character of not less than fifty years of age, who shall have been resident in the said parish for not less than five years immediately preceding their admission, and shall not have been in the receipt of parochial relief during any part of the last of such years; and that as between applicants whose claims or merits shall be considered by the Committee to be in other respects equal, a preference shall be given to persons in decayed circumstances or condition reduced by unavoidable misfortune or calamity.

3. The vestry of the said parish, or the trustees or others having the disposal of the income arising from the several charitable endowments mentioned in the first schedule hereto heretofore distributable in pecuniary doles or bread or other articles in kind among the poor of the said parish, and of the proportion which is equal to 84*l.* 10*s.* 1*d.* out of every 100*l.* heretofore applicable in like manner of the net rents and profits arising from the property called the Forlorn Hope estate, in the present parish of Saint

Saint Paul, Bristol, shall from time to time pay out of such income of each kind, to or for the disposal of the said Almshouse Committee, the clear yearly sum of 200*l.*, or such less yearly sum as shall be equal to one-third part of the net amount of such income, to be applied by the said Committee to the repair and maintenance, and, if occasion shall be, to the improvement or extension of the said almshouse, and to the support and benefit of the inmates thereof appointed under this scheme. And the said Committee shall have a discretionary power to apply any proportions of the monies applicable to the support and benefit of the said inmates in providing for them fuel, clothing, food, attendance in sickness or infirmity, medical aid, or other necessaries, and in direct pecuniary allowances to them, or in any of the said modes, as the said Committee shall think fit. The said Committee shall also have power to make any such payments or allowances which, under the circumstances of the case, they may consider expedient, to any persons who shall be inmates of the said almshouse when this scheme shall come into operation, and to permit also such persons to remain therein for such respective periods as in the judgment of the said Committee shall be convenient.

All payments directed to be made to or for the disposal of the said Committee may be made to such treasurer, bankers, or other persons as shall from time to time be appointed by them for the purpose of receiving the same.

4. Suitable regulations shall be established by the said Committee, with the approval of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, for the direction of their own proceedings, and for the administration, management, and government of the said almshouse, and its endowments, and the inmates thereof, in conformity to this scheme, and such regulations may from time to time be added to or varied by the Committee for the time being, with the like approval.

5. All the residue of the net income arising from the several charitable endowments enumerated in the first schedule hereto, and of the before-mentioned proportion of the net rents and profits of the Forlorn Hope estate, and the net dividends also arising from the several stocks mentioned in the second schedule hereto, with the exception of 200*l.*, part of the therein mentioned sum of 798*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* 3*l.* per cent. consolidated annuities, the gift of Richard Aldridge, all which said dividends have been also hitherto distributable in pecuniary doles, or bread, or other articles in kind among the poor of the said parish, and also so much of the dividends of the said excepted sum of 200*l.* stock as is now eventually applicable to the like purposes; and also all the dividends arising from a sum of 466*l.* 2*s.* 9*d.* 3*l.* per cent. consolidated bank annuities, constituting a fund called the Almshouse School Fund, standing in the names of Peter Maze the younger, William Henry Terrell, John Smith, and William Hassell, Esquires, and being the investment of contributions formerly made for the support of a parochial school in the said almshouse, or in a building attached thereto, for the benefit of the poor of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, but which school has been discontinued; and, lastly, an annuity of 41*l.*, created by the will of William Pennoyre, dated in the year 1670, and distributable, as to the sum of 5*l.*, in pecuniary doles among the poor of the parish of Saint Leonard, Bristol, and as to the residue to educational purposes for the benefit of the same poor, shall altogether constitute a fund, to be called, for the purposes of this scheme, "The Saint Nicholas and Saint Leonard Parochial School Fund," and shall be applicable from time to time in aid or towards the support of the parochial schools recently established, or in a course of construction and establishment by principal inhabitants of the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Leonard, with the aid of certain public grants, for the joint instruction of the children of the poor of both the same parishes, and for the benefit of the children attending the same schools, as herein-after provided, and shall be paid for such purposes by the respective vestries or trustees of the said several charitable endowments, or other persons liable to pay the same respectively to, or for the disposal, or according to the directions of the School Committee herein-after constituted, or, with the assent of such School Committee, directly to or for the use of the managers of the said parochial schools for the time being, by the hands of their treasurer or other officer authorized to receive the same.

6. The application of the said "Saint Nicholas and Saint Leonard Parochial School Fund" shall belong to or be under the supervision of a Committee, to be called "The Saint Nicholas and Saint Leonard School Committee," and to consist of the vicar and churchwardens for the time being of each of the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Leonard, and twelve other persons, of whom eight shall be appointed, as occasion shall be for constituting or completing their number, by the vestry of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, and shall be removable in like manner, and the remaining four shall be appointed, and shall be also removable in like manner, by the vestry of the said parish of Saint Leonard.

7. Such a proportion of the said school fund as shall be approved by the said School Committee shall from time to time be appropriated under their inspection, and to their satisfaction, to the purpose of providing, so far as the amounts appropriated to this purpose will extend, one or more daily meals, either gratuitously or at a reduced cost, for all the children attending the said schools, or for any such children to whom the distance of their residence from the schools, or the poverty of their parents or next friends, or other circumstances, shall render this provision most beneficial, or to whom this benefit may be assigned by the managers of the schools as a reward of merit, in order particularly to the exemption of such children from the difficulties and loss of time incident to their passing to and from the said schools, and to the promotion of their comfort therein, and the relief of their parents or next friends; and the residue of the said school fund shall be applicable to the general support and purposes of the said schools, either directly by the School Committee, or by means of its transfer by them for that purpose to the managers of the said schools. Provided always, and it shall be part of the terms upon which the said school fund shall be appropriated in manner aforesaid, that reasonable regulations shall be made by the managers of the said schools for exempting children, for whom this exemption shall be claimed in writing by their parents or next friends, dissenting from the Established Church, from receiving compulsory instruction in the catechism or distinctive doctrines of the Church, and from attending services.

8. The said School Committee, subject to the approval of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, may make and establish and from time to time extend, revoke, or vary regulations not inconsistent with this scheme in relation to their proceedings, and to the administration and management of the said parochial school fund, and the discharge of the duties hereby imposed on them.

9. At all meetings of either of the Committees hereby constituted five members thereof shall be sufficient to form a quorum, and a majority of the members present shall be competent to bind by their votes a minority and all absent members, and in case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. The vicar of the said parishes, if present, shall be the chairman of every such meeting, and in his absence the chairman shall be elected by the members present.

10. This scheme shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of January next after the establishment thereof by the authority of Parliament, but the trustees or administrators of the several Charities comprised therein shall be at liberty to continue any allowances of money or in kind for a period not exceeding twelve calendar months from that date, or with the consent of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, for any longer period or periods to any then recipients of such allowances to whom, on account of any special circumstances, the said trustees or administrators shall consider it desirable to continue such allowances.

11. If any doubt or question shall arise between the members of either of the said Committees, or among any persons liable to make any payments under this scheme, as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions thereof or the management of the Charity, application may be made by the said parties respectively, or any of them, to the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales for their opinion and advice thereon, which, when given, shall be binding on all parties; and any provision in this scheme which may require to be explained, or more closely adapted to the circumstances for the time being of the Charity, may be explained and adapted accordingly by an order either of the Court of Chancery or of the said Board, to be made upon the application of either of the said Committees; and any provision in this scheme which shall be found inconvenient or objectionable may be modified accordingly by an order of the Court of Chancery upon the application of either of the said Committees, provided that no such alteration shall be made involving a deviation from the main objects and principles of this scheme.

'WHEREAS Sir William Yardley, Knight, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay, in the Month of December last transmitted to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India a Notification of his Intention to resign his said Office of Chief Justice on the Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and Her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing Date the Twenty-second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, appointed Sir Henry Davison Chief Justice of the said Court: And whereas the said Sir William Yardley continued to act as Chief Justice of the said Court until the 'said Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; but it is apprehended that the 'Appointment of the said Sir Henry Davison operated to revoke as from the Date of the said Letters 'Patent the Appointment of his Predecessor: And whereas it is expedient that the Acts of the said 'Sir William Yardley should be made valid:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Acts of Sir W. Yardley as Chief Justice up to 9th April 1858 confirmed.

All Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever done, ordered, or authorized by the said Sir William Yardley in or in relation to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay, between the Date of the said Letters Patent and the Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, shall be as valid and shall have the same Force and Effect as if his Appointment as Chief Justice of the said Supreme Court had not been revoked or determined.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act for the better Management of County Rates. [12th July 1858.]

15 & 16 Vict. c. 81.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, Chapter Eighty-one, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Statutes relating to 'the Assessment and Collection of County Rates in England and Wales, the Justices of the Peace of the 'several Counties or Divisions of Counties in England and Wales are respectively empowered to appoint 'a Committee for the Purpose of preparing a Basis or Standard for fair and equal County Rates to be 'made in their respective Counties and Divisions: And whereas by the Fifty-first Section of the said 'Act it is amongst other things declared that in the Construction of the said Act the Word "County" 'shall mean and include any Riding or Division having a separate Commission of the Peace or separate 'County Treasurer: And whereas certain Counties having One Commission of the Peace are for certain 'Purposes divided into separate Divisions, each Division having a separate County Treasurer, and such 'Divisions have been unequally assessed, and Doubts are entertained concerning the Application of the 'said Act in such Counties, and it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be deemed 'and declared to be applicable to such Counties generally, and not to separate Divisions thereof par-'ticularly:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Provisions of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 81. to apply to Counties having separate Divisional County Treasurers.

I. In any County having One Commission of the Peace, and being divided into separate Divisions, having each a separate County Treasurer, the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-one, for the Purpose of preparing the Basis or Standard as aforesaid, may be taken and considered to apply to the whole of such County generally, and not to separate Divisions thereof particularly, notwithstanding any Provision contained in the Fifty-first Section of the said Act.

Justices of Divisions to raise all County Rates and to administer all Disbursements thereout in such Divisions as heretofore.

II. The Justices of such Divisions shall nevertheless at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, raise all County Rates and administer all Disbursements thereout in respect of Expenses incurred in and for such Divisions, in like Manner as they may have heretofore been accustomed to raise and administer the same in such Divisions: Provided always, that the Justices usually acting in Two or more of such Divisions may, if they shall think fit, at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in each of such Divisions by an Order of such several Sessions, agree to raise and administer such Disbursements jointly, and such Divisions shall, on and after the making of such Orders as aforesaid, be considered for the Purposes aforesaid as One Division only and not separate Divisions: Provided also, that any Sum heretofore levied or which may be levied hereafter for Expenses incurred generally for the whole of any such County shall be levied and paid by the Divisions of such County, in proportion to the total Assessment of such Divisions respectively, as ascertained by the Basis or Standard aforesaid.

An Act to remove Doubts as to the Operation of a Convention between Her Majesty and the Emperor of the French relative to Portendic and Albreda. [12th July 1858.]

'WHEREAS a Convention was, on the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and 'fifty-seven, concluded between Her Majesty and His Majesty the Emperor of the French, of 'which the Ratifications were exchanged on the Twenty-seventh Day of the same Month, whereby it 'was agreed as follows:

'"ARTICLE

'"ARTICLE I.—Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland re-
'"linquishes the Right hitherto enjoyed, under Treaty, by the Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty,
'"of trading from the Mouth of the River St. John to the Bay and Fort of Portendic inclusively.

'"ARTICLE II.—His Majesty the Emperor of the French cedes to Her Britannic Majesty the '"French Factory or Comptoir at Albreda, on the North Bank of the River Gambia, on the '"Western Coast of Africa, together with all possessory or other Rights whatever appertaining to '"the said Factory.

'"ARTICLE III.—Her Britannic Majesty consents that French Subjects shall have free Access '"to the River Gambia for the Purposes of their Commerce. They shall be allowed to reside at '"the Town of Bathurst, and at such other Trading Station or Stations as may hereafter be '"appointed by Her Britannic Majesty in Council, but not elsewhere; except so far as regards
'"Albreda, where such French Subjects as are now resident, and may wish to remain, are autho'"rized so to do by Article IV. of the present Convention, conforming themselves, however, to the '"Laws and local Regulations which are or may be in force in the British Settlements in the '"Gambia. French Vessels in the River Gambia shall be subject to the same Duties, Tolls, and '"Regulations as British Vessels; and every Article imported or exported in French Vessels shall '"pay the same Duty as is or may be imposed upon the like Article when imported or exported in

'"after the Cession to Her Britannic Majesty of the French Factory or Comptoir, shall preserve
'"their Property, and the Rights attached thereto, and shall be protected and treated in all respects
'"in the same Manner as all other French Subjects in the Possessions of Her Britannic Majesty."

'And whereas Doubts are entertained whether certain of the Provisions of the said Convention are 'consistent with certain Provisions concerning the Coasting Trade of the British Possessions contained
'in an Act of the Session holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and seven, "to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Customs of the United '"Kingdom and of the Isle of Man, and certain Laws relating to Trade and Navigation, and the '"British Possessions:"' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 16 & 17 Vict. c. 107.

I. The above-recited Convention is hereby confirmed, and shall be deemed to have full Force and Operation, anything in the said recited Act or in any other Act of Parliament notwithstanding. Recited Convention confirmed.

An Act for releasing the Lands of the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851, upon the Repayment of Monies granted in aid of their Funds. [12th July 1858.]

'WHEREAS the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 have purchased Lands at Kensington Gore with a view to secure adequate Space in the Metropolis for Institutions connected with
'Science and Art: And whereas in aid of the Funds of the said Commissioners, arising from the said
'Exhibition, which were applied to such Purchases, Two several Sums of One hundred and fifty
'thousand Pounds and Twenty-seven thousand five hundred Pounds were granted by Parliament in
'the Sessions holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth and in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of 'Her Majesty, and it was agreed, on the Issue of such Sums, that the Lands purchased as aforesaid
'should be held subject to such Directions of Appropriation as should from Time to Time be issued by
'the Treasury in respect to such Part, not exceeding One Moiety, as should by Agreement between the 'Lords of the Treasury and the said Commissioners for the Exhibition be set apart for such Institutions
'connected with Science and Art as were more immediately dependent upon and supported by the 'Government from Funds voted by Parliament, and subject also, with respect to the other Part thereof,
'to such general Superintendence by the Lords of the Treasury as might be necessary to secure that
'the Appropriation proposed to be made, and all the Arrangements in relation thereto, as regards
'Buildings to be erected thereon, should be in conformity with some general Plan, which should be 'adopted as applicable to all Parts of the Property, whether such Buildings should be erected from 'Public Monies or by private Subscription: And whereas the said Commissioners have proposed to 'repay the Sums granted by Parliament as aforesaid, together with a Moiety of the net Rents received
'by the said Commissioners up to the Thirty-first Day of March last, amounting to Three thousand 'eight hundred and seventy-nine Pounds Four Shillings and Twopence (making, together with the 'Sums granted as aforesaid, the Sum of One hundred and eighty-one thousand three hundred and 'seventy-nine Pounds Four Shillings and Twopence), upon having the said Lands released from the 'Trusts or Obligations created in respect of the Sums granted as aforesaid: And whereas it is expe-
'dient that the said Proposal should be accepted, subject to such Provision as is herein-after contained

'with reference to a Part of the said Lands of which the Possession may be retained for the Purposes 'of the Department of Science and Art:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Lands purchased by Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 to be released on Repayment of Parliamentary Grants and Moiety of Rents.

I. Upon Payment by the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 of a Sum or Sums amounting together to the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-one thousand three hundred and seventy-nine Pounds Four Shillings and Twopence into the Receipt of the Exchequer in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct, the Commissioners for the said Exhibition, and all the Lands purchased or to be purchased by or in the Name of such Commissioners, shall be absolutely released and discharged from the Agreement herein-before recited, and from all Trust, Obligation, Control, Claim, and Demand to which such Lands may be subject in respect of the Sums granted by Parliament as aforesaid: Provided always, that if such Payment be not made within Six Months from the passing of this Act, there shall be added to the said Sum a further Sum equal to One Half of the net Rental which shall accrue to the Time when such Payment shall be made.

Land occupied by the Department of Science and Art may be retained for such Department.

II. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require that Part of the said Lands now in the Occupation of the Department of Science and Art, that is to say, the Piece of Land containing Twelve Acres or thereabouts, bounded on the West by Exhibition Road and on the South by Cromwell Road, with the Museum, Gallery, and other Buildings thereon, shall be retained in the Occupation and for the Use of Her Majesty's Government for Purposes connected with Science or the Arts, so long as the said Commissioners of the Treasury think fit, with Liberty to erect, add to, or alter any Buildings on the said Piece of Land, and, if such Commissioners of the Treasury think fit, to cause to be taken down, removed, and disposed of all or any of the Buildings which have been already erected or which may hereafter be erected thereon; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to direct that the Payment of such Portion of the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-one thousand three hundred and seventy-nine Pounds Four Shillings and Twopence as they may think fit, not exceeding what may appear to them to be the Value of the said Piece of Land, may be postponed so long as such Piece of Land is so retained as aforesaid; and upon Payment in manner herein-before mentioned of the Residue of the said Sum of One hundred and eighty-one thousand three hundred and seventy-nine Pounds Four Shillings and Twopence, after Deduction of the Amount of which the Payment may be so postponed, the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall, by Warrant under the Hands of Two of such Commissioners, declare that the Residue of the said Lands shall be absolutely released and discharged from the said Agreement, and all such Trust, Obligation, Control, Claim, and Demand as aforesaid, and the same shall be released and discharged accordingly.

Monies paid to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

III. All Monies paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer under this Act shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to provide for the Allotment of the Commonable Lands within the Boundaries of the late Forest of Hainault in the County of Essex. [23d July 1858.]

14 & 15 Vict. c. 43.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth 'Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Hainault in the 'County of Essex, after reciting (amongst other things) that the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, in 'right of Her Crown, was or claimed to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of and in 'Waltham Forest, formerly called the Forest of Essex in the County of Essex, One Portion of which 'was usually called or known by the Name of Hainault Forest; and reciting that Her Majesty, in right 'of Her Crown, was or claimed to be seised to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of the Soil of that 'Portion of the said Forest of Hainault which was commonly called the King's Forest or King's Woods, 'and of the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood standing and growing thereon, and that 'the said Forest of Hainault was subject to divers Claims or Rights of Common and other Rights and 'Interests of Her Majesty's Subjects in and over the same, and that Her Majesty had been graciously 'pleased to signify Her Consent that the said Forest of Hainault should be disafforested, and the Royal 'Deer therein removed or destroyed with all convenient Speed; it was enacted that the now-reciting 'Act should be carried into execution by Commissioners to be appointed as therein directed, and that 'the said Commissioners when appointed should proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest 'of Hainault, and also of that Portion of the said Forest called the King's Forest or King's Woods, and 'that the said Commissioners, so soon as they should have ascertained the aforesaid Boundaries, should 'proceed to set out and allot to Her Majesty such Part or Parts of the said King's Forest or King's 'Woods as they should think a sufficient Compensation to Her Majesty for all Her Forestal Rights in and 'over the said Forest of Hainault, for Her Rights of Soil in the said King's Forest or King's Woods and 'in other the uninclosed Portions of the said Forest of Hainault, if any, for Her Right of Timber 'and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood in the said Woods or elsewhere in the said Forest, and that 'such Allotment or Allotments, when made, should be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, 'as Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of Her Crown, freed and discharged from

'all

'all Right or Claims of Common of Pasture, Estovers or Assignments of Fuel, Wood, and all other 'Rights and Claims whatsoever, and that on the making of such Award the said Forest of Hainault 'should be for ever disafforested, and that the Residue of the said King's Forest or King's Woods and all 'other Parts of the said Forest of Hainault (not then inclosed) should become the Property of the 'Queen's Majesty and the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common in and over the said Forest or 'any Part thereof, as they then were entitled to the same, freed and discharged from all Right of Soil, 'Rights of Timber, and all Forestal Rights of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and in the 'said Act were contained Provisions for a Trial at Law between Sir Charles Hulse Baronet on the one 'hand, and Her Majesty's Attorney General and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods on the other 'hand, for the Purpose of determining whether Her Majesty or the said Sir Charles Hulse was entitled 'to the Right of Soil in the said King's Forest or King's Woods or in some Portion thereof (which Right 'of Soil was claimed by the said Sir Charles Hulse), with Power for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's 'Woods to accept Proposals from the said Sir Charles Hulse for compromising the Matters in dispute, 'all which Compromises were by the said Act declared to be binding and conclusive, and if the Verdict 'in any such Trial as before mentioned should be in favour of the said Sir Charles Hulse, then the Com- 'missioners under the Act now in recital were to set out and allot to the said Sir Charles Hulse so much 'and such Part of the Allotment therein-before directed to be set out to Her Majesty as the said Commis- 'sioners should by Writing under their Hands award to be a just Equivalent and Compensation for and in 'lieu of the Right of Soil claimed by the said Sir Charles Hulse, and to which he should appear entitled 'by such Verdict; and it was by the said Act enacted that nothing therein contained should in anywise 'extend to or prejudice the Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty to any Right of Common appended 'or appurtenant to any anciently inclosed Lands of Her Majesty, or the Title, Right, or Claim of Her 'Majesty, or any Person or Persons, to the inclosed Part of the said Forest of Hainault, or otherwise, 'as therein is mentioned: And whereas certain Commissioners were, in the Manner directed by the 'said recited Act, duly appointed for carrying the said Act into execution, and they did by their 'Award, bearing Date the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in 'pursuance of the Powers of the said Act, ascertain and award the Boundaries of the said Forest of 'Hainault and of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, and which said Boundaries were described 'in their Award and the Map therein referred to; and by the said Award, after reciting that by an 'Instrument in Writing, dated the Twenty-sixth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty- 'two, and made between the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods of the One Part, Her Majesty's 'Attorney General of the Second Part, and the said Sir Charles Hulse Baronet of the Third Part, it 'was among other things agreed that the Claim made by Sir Charles Hulse, therein and in this Act 'before mentioned, should be compromised, upon the Terms therein-after contained, and that it should for 'the Purpose of such Compromise be considered that the said Sir Charles Hulse had proceeded to a 'Trial of the Action before mentioned, and had obtained a Verdict in his Favour, and that the said 'Commissioners should allot to Her Majesty the Lands coloured Red on the Plan therein referred to, 'and should allot to the said Sir Charles Hulse the Lands coloured Green on such Plan, the said Com- 'missioners did set out and allot to Her Majesty certain Parts of the King's Forest or King's Woods 'containing One thousand nine hundred and seventeen Acres or thereabouts, and in the said Award 'mentioned, and the said Commissioners did declare what Portion of the said Allotment was by the said 'Compromise to become the Property of the said Sir Charles Hulse, and they did by their Award, so 'far as they had Power so to do, award and allot such Portion to the said Sir Charles Hulse, and other 'Parts of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, which on the Map referred to in the said Award are 'stated to contain in the whole Nine hundred and sixty-nine Acres Three Roods and Seventeen Perches, 'remain unallotted and uninclosed: And whereas Her Majesty, in right of Her Crown, and divers of 'Her Majesty's Subjects, are or claim to be entitled to certain Rights of Common of Estovers or of 'cutting Wood for Fuel commonly called Fuel Assignments in the late Forest of Hainault: And 'whereas there are within the Boundary of the late Forest of Hainault, in addition to the Commonable 'Lands within that Part of the said Forest which is situate within the Parishes of Barking and Dagen- 'ham, and usually known as the King's Forest or King's Woods, divers other Commonable Lands situate 'in various other Parishes, and Doubts exist whether the Queen's Majesty and the Persons possessing 'Rights of Common within the Boundaries of the said late Forest are entitled to exercise them over all 'Commonable Lands within the Boundaries of such Forest, or only over such as lie in the same Parish 'or District as the Lands in respect of which such Rights are claimed: And whereas it is expedient 'that Provision should be made for setting out a Part of the unallotted Portion of the King's Forest 'or King's Woods to the Queen's Majesty and other the Persons entitled to Common of Estovers or 'Fuel Assignments, and for dividing and allotting such Part between them in satisfaction of their said 'Rights, and it is also expedient to ascertain and define the Commonable Lands within the Boundaries 'of the said late Forest, to make such Provisions in respect thereof as are after contained, and that such 'other Provisions should be made as after mentioned:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The

Act to be executed by a Commissioner appointed by Inclosure Commissioners.

I. The Provisions of this Act shall be carried into execution by a Commissioner to be appointed in Writing by Two of the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, within Three Calendar Months from the passing of this Act; and in case of the Death, Resignation, or Incapacity of such Commissioner, a new Commissioner shall be appointed in like Manner as often as the same shall be necessary.

Power for the Commissioner to appoint a Surveyor.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioner so to be appointed to appoint a Surveyor or Valuer for the Purposes of this Act; and the said Commissioner shall be paid such Sum of Money not exceeding Three hundred Pounds as the said Inclosure Commissioners shall think reasonable; and the said Surveyor or Valuer shall be paid such a Sum of Money by way of Remuneration, not exceeding Two hundred Pounds, as the said Inclosure Commissioners shall think reasonable.

Commissioner to make Allotments to Persons entitled to Fuel Assignments.

III. The Commissioner so to be appointed as aforesaid shall, immediately after his Appointment, ascertain and determine the Persons, including Her Majesty, respectively entitled to such Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments, as herein-before recited, and shall estimate in the Manner herein-after directed the Value of such Rights at the Time of the passing of the said Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty; and in estimating the Value at the Time aforesaid of the said Rights of Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments, the Commissioner shall have regard, not only to the Value of such Rights alone, but also to the Value of the other Rights of Common exerciseable over the Land subject to the said Fuel Assignments, and the Amount to which the other Rights of Common would be lessened in Value by the Exercise or Existence of the said Rights of Common of Estovers, in such Manner that the Value of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the Land over which the said several Rights are exerciseable may be fairly and justly apportioned between the Owners of the said Rights of Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignments on the one hand, and the Owners of other Rights of Common on the other hand; and the Commissioner shall set out such Part of the unallotted Portion of the said King's Forest or King's Woods, estimated to contain Nine hundred and sixty-nine Acres Three Roods and Seventeen Perches, as he may consider equivalent to the Value of the said Fuel Assignments at the Time aforesaid, after deducting from such Value a fair and reasonable Proportion of the estimated Expense of the passing of this Act and of carrying the same into execution, other than and except the Expenses of making the Fences between Allotments, which the Commissioner is by this Act authorized to cause to be made, and except as herein-after provided with respect to the Cost of making and forming Roads, and shall allot and divide the same Part in Severalty by his Award under his Hand and Seal unto and among the Queen's Majesty and other the Persons respectively entitled to such Rights, in proportion to the Extent or Value of such Rights respectively, and the said Allotments shall respectively go and be held with and as Part of the Hereditaments in respect of which such Fuel Assignments exist, subject to such Conditions as to Fencing or Rights of Way or otherwise as the Commissioner may think proper, but freed and discharged from all Rights of Common and other Rights; and the same Award shall be accompanied by a Plan defining the Situation and Extent of the Allotment made to every Person entitled to a Fuel Assignment; and any Allotments to be made to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall go and be held as by the said recited Act is provided with respect to the Allotment thereby directed to be made to Her; and from and after such Award shall be made all the Commonable Lands in the said late Forest shall be discharged from all such Rights of Common of Estovers or Fuel Rights in all respects whatsoever; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Right or Title to the said Fuel Assignments the said Commissioner may hear or receive such Evidence, at such Time and in such Manner as he may think fit to require; and the Award of the said Commissioner shall be binding on all Parties; and the Commissioner may call for the Production of any Books, Papers, or Writings, or require the Attendance of any Witness, and examine him or her upon Oath, as he may think fit; and the said Commissioner may by his said Award give such Directions as to the fencing of the said Allotments to be made as aforesaid and the keeping the same in repair as he shall think fit.

Power to Persons to sell Rights of Common of Fuel Assignments before Execution of Award.

IV. It shall be lawful for any Person or Persons at any Time before the Execution of the Award of the said Commissioner, to sell any Right of Common of Estovers or Fuel Assignment upon or over the said unallotted Lands in the King's Woods, and the Right to any Allotment or Allotments to be made in respect thereof, by virtue of this Act, separate and apart from the Estate in respect whereof the said Right of Common exists, and in every Case of any such Sale, the Commissioner is hereby authorized and required to make the Allotment in respect of the Rights purchased to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof respectively, who shall, on the Execution of the Award of the said Commissioner, become entitled to such Allotment or Allotments, in the same Manner as the former Proprietor of the said Rights would have been entitled in case such Sale or Sales had not been made.

Power for the Commissioner to sell unallotted Lands for Expenses of Act, &c.

V. 'million Pounds directed to be issued annually towards the Reduction of the National Debt under an 'Act then in force, there should be issued for that Purpose such annual Sum as should appear to be the 'actual surplus Revenue of the United Kingdom beyond the actual annual Expenditure thereof: And 18 & 19 Vict. 'whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, c. 18. 'Chapter Eighteen, "for raising the Sum of Sixteen million Pounds by way of Annuities," it is enacted, 'that "for the Purpose of the Extinction of a Portion of the Funded Debt of Great Britain and '"Ireland equal to the Amount to be added to the Joint Stock of Annuities therein mentioned, there '"should be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund, or out of the growing Produce thereof, to '"the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Financial Year commencing on '"the First Day of April which should first happen Twelve Months after the Ratification of a Defini- '"tive Treaty of Peace with Russia, and in every subsequent Year until such Portion of the said '"Funded Debt is extinguished by means of the Monies to be issued to the said Commissioners '"under that Enactment, the Sum of One million Pounds:" And whereas in the Acts of the Session 19 & 20 Vict. VI. It shall be lawful for the said Universities and any College therein respectively, and the Colleges of Saint Mary of Winchester near Winchester, and of King Henry the Sixth at Eton, to purchase by Agreement from any Lessee holding under any Lease for Years or for a Life or Lives granted by such University or College, whereon a Rent less than Three Fourths of the clear yearly Value of such Lands shall have been reserved, the Term, Estate, and Interest of such Lessee in all or any of the Lands comprised in such Lease for such Consideration, either by Payment to such Lessee of a gross Sum of Money (to be provided or raised as hereafter mentioned), or by the Grant to such Lessee during the Residue then unexpired of the Term, or so long as such Lease but for such Purchase would have continued, such an annual Sum as may be agreed on between such University or College and Lessee respectively.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to amend the Provisions of an Act of the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, for separating the Palatine Jurisdiction of the County Palatine of Durham from the Bishoprick of Durham; and to make further Provision with respect to the Jura Regalia of the said County. [23d July 1858.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William 'the Fourth, Chapter Nineteen, it was by the First Section enacted, that from and after the 'Commencement of that Act the Bishop of Durham for the Time being should have and exercise Epis- 'copal and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction only, and that from and after the Commencement of that Act 'the Palatine Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority theretofore vested in and belonging to the Bishop 'of Durham should be separated from the Bishoprick of Durham, and should be transferred to and 'vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as a Franchise and Royalty separate from the 'Crown, and should be exercised and enjoyed by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as a separate 'Franchise and Royalty, in as large and ample a Manner in all respects as the same had been theretofore 'exercised and enjoyed by the Bishop of Durham, and that all Forfeitures of Lands or Goods for Trea- 'son or otherwise, and all Mines of Gold and Silver, Treasure Trove, Deodands, Escheats, Fines and 'Amerciaments, and all Jura Regalia, of what Nature or Kind soever, which if that Act had not been 'passed would or might belong to the Bishop of Durham for the Time being in right of the County 'Palatine of Durham, should be vested in His Majesty and His Successors in right of the same; and it 'was by the said Act provided, that nothing therein-before contained should prejudice or affect the 'Jurisdiction of any of the Courts of the said County Palatine, or any Appointment theretofore made to 'any Office in the said County Palatine, or any Act whatsoever theretofore done by the Bishop of 'Durham in right of the said County Palatine; and by the Ninth Section of the same Act it was pro- 'vided, that nothing therein-before contained should have the Effect of severing or of separating from 'the said Bishoprick, or of affecting the Rights and Powers of the said Bishop in, over, upon, and with 'respect to any Lordships, Manors, Houses, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, Rents, Collieries, Mines, Minerals, 'Rectories, Advowsons, Profits, or Emoluments, of any Kind or Description whatsoever, whether held 'in right of the said Bishoprick, or in right of the said County Palatine, or otherwise howsoever, other 'than and except only any Profits and Emoluments therein-before expressly mentioned and directed to 'be severed therefrom: And whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of the Third and Fourth 'Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to carry into effect, with certain Modifi- 'cations, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, and of a Scheme 'of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and an Order of Her Majesty in Council dated the Fourth Day of 'April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and published in the London Gazette on the Twenty- 'second Day of the same Month, ratifying the said Scheme, with the Consent of the Right Reverend 'Edward then Bishop of Durham, testified by his Hand and Episcopal Seal being affixed to the said 'Scheme, all the Manors, Lands, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments which then belonged, either in 'possession or reversion, to the said Bishop in right of his Bishoprick (except Rights of Patronage, the 'Episcopal Residence at Bishops Auckland, with the Grounds thereto belonging, and certain other Lands 'specified in the Schedule to the said Scheme, and Sums of Money and Cash), and all the Estate and 'Interest therein of the said Bishop, are transferred to and become vested in the said Ecclesiastical Com- 'missioners and their Successors, for the Purposes of the last-mentioned Act, and other Acts referred to 'in the said Scheme, as from the First of October then last: And whereas amongst the Jura Regalia 'claimed by the Bishop of Durham previously to and at the Time of the passing of the said first-recited

'Act was the Right to the Shore of the Sea between High-water Mark and Low-water Mark, and to 'the Beds and Shores of navigable Rivers so far as the Tide flows and reflows therein, within the said 'County of Durham: And whereas Doubts are entertained with respect to the said Claim, and with 'respect to the Construction of the said Act, how far such Right is or has thereby become vested in Her 'Majesty: And whereas Doubts have also arisen how far some Portions of the said Seashore and of the 'said Beds and Shores of the said navigable Rivers do or do not belong to the See of Durham, as Parcel 'of some or One of the Manors, Seigniories, or Possessions appertaining thereto: And whereas for 'putting an end to all Controversy and Question with respect to the several Matters aforesaid, by a 'Memorandum of Agreement dated the Eleventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-'seven, made between the Honourable Charles Alexander Gore, a Commissioner of Her Majesty's 'Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, on behalf of the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, of the one 'Part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other Part, after reciting as is by this 'Act recited, and that it was desirable that the Doubts which had arisen as herein-before recited should 'be removed, it was, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and of Her 'Majesty's Law Officers, agreed, that, subject to the Sanction of Parliament being obtained, the following 'Arrangement should be made concerning the Premises; that is to say, First, that, subject as therein-'after mentioned, it should be considered or enacted that all the Estate and Interest of the Bishop in 'right of the See and County Palatine of Durham, or in right of any Manor, Parcel of that See, and 'also any Estate and Interest of Her Majesty the Queen in right of the said County Palatine, and 'whether by virtue of the recited Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, 'Chapter Nineteen, or irrespectively of the said Act, in the Shores of the German Ocean, and of 'navigable Rivers below High-water Mark within the County of Durham, was by the last-mentioned 'Act or otherwise should become vested in Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, and that it should be 'provided that the same should be held by Her Majesty as Part of the Hereditary Possessions of the 'Crown; Second, that such Declaration should not extend to such Lands recovered from the Flow of 'the Tide before the passing of the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of William the Fourth as 'the Bishop had previously to that Act in fact received Rent from as reclaimed Land (which Land was 'to continue Parcel of the See of Durham); Third, that existing Leases by the Bishop of Parts of the 'Shores in question, not being such reclaimed Land as aforesaid, should be confirmed, but that the 'Rents reserved by them, or a fair Proportion of such Rents, if other Property was comprised in the 'same Lease, should in future be paid to the Crown; Fourth, that all Purchase Monies and Rents 'received on behalf of the Crown for Foreshore in any Part of the County should, after Payment of 'Expenses, be divided into Halves, and that one Moiety should be paid to the Ecclesiastical Commis-'sioners, and the other Moiety be retained on behalf of Her Majesty; Fifth, that any Monies deposited 'in the Court of Chancery for Land taken since the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and 'thirty-six, being then Foreshore, and not previously reclaimed, for which Rent had been received by 'the Bishop, should in like Manner be divided equally between the Crown and the Ecclesiastical Com-'missioners, and that all Sales and Transactions in respect of which such Monies have been deposited 'should be confirmed; Sixth, the Definition of the County to be the same as in the Act of King William 'the Fourth, except that Holy Island was not to be included in the Arrangement; Seventh, a Schedule 'to be made out of the Premises coming within the Scope of the Third Article: And whereas it is expe-'dient that the Arrangement referred to in the recited Memorandum of Agreement be carried into effect, 'subject to such Variations as are made by this Act, and that such further Provisions should be made 'as are herein-after contained; and Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to assent thereto:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

LII. When and so soon as any Application shall be made to the Court for a Declaration of Title under this Act, the First Act of the Court in reference to such Application shall be to cause Publication thereof to be made by Advertisement in such Manner as the Court shall direct; and when and so soon as the Court shall make a Rule, Order, or Decision as to the Sufficiency of the Title of the Person applying for a Declaration thereof as aforesaid, the Court shall cause such Order or Decision to be published in such Manner as the Court shall direct; and such Declaration shall not be signed by the Judge until after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months from the First Publication hereintofore mentioned, and of One Calendar Month after the Publication of such Rule, Order, or Decision; provided that no Appeal shall lie from the Declaration of Title when signed by the Judge and registered as aforesaid.

Exchanges may be made of Lands not subject to be sold under this Act.

LXXXII. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the Application of the Owner of Lands in Ireland not subject to be sold under this Act, or as to which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act shall be pending, who shall desire to effect an Exchange of such Lands, to make or cause to be made such Inquiries as the Court may think fit for ascertaining whether such Exchange would be beneficial to the Persons interested in the respective Lands; and in case the Court shall be of opinion that the proposed Exchange would be beneficial, and that the Terms thereof are just and reasonable, they shall make an Order under their Seal for such Exchange accordingly; and in such Order for Exchange, or in a Map or Plan annexed thereto, shall be shown the Lands given and taken in Exchange respectively under such Order; and the Land taken upon such Exchange under such Order shall, without any Conveyance or other Assurance in relation thereto, go and enure to and upon the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Land given upon such Exchange would have stood limited or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

and Allotment, as the several Parcels allotted to them respectively by such Order; and the Parcels of Land taken under such Division and Allotment shall go and enure to and upon the same Uses and Trusts, and be subject to the same Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the several Lands which the Persons taking the same shall have relinquished or lost in such Division would have stood limited or been subject to in case such Order had not been made.

Notices of Partitions, Exchanges, and Division to be given.

LXXXIV. Provided always, That in the Case of Land in which no Proceedings for a Sale under this Act shall be pending, no such Order of Partition, or of Exchange, or of Division and Allotment, as aforesaid, shall be made by the Court until such Notices by Advertisement in public Newspaper or Newspapers as the Court shall direct shall have been given of such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division and Allotment, and Three Calendar Months shall have elapsed from the Publication of the last of such Advertisements; and in case before the Expiration of such Three Calendar Months any Person entitled to any Estate in or to any Charge upon any Land included in such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division and Allotment, shall give Notice in Writing to the Court of his Dissent from such proposed Partition, Exchange, or Division and Allotment, (as the Case may be,) the Court shall not make an Order for such Partition, Exchange, or Division and Allotment, unless such Dissent shall be withdrawn, or it shall be shown to the Court that the Estate or Charges of the Party so dissenting shall have ceased, or that such Estate or Charges is not an Estate or Charge in respect of which he would be entitled in Equity to prevent such Partition, Exchange, or Division and Allotment; but no such Order as aforesaid shall be in anywise liable to be impeached by reason of any Infirmity of Estate or Defect of Title of the Persons on whose Application the same shall have been made.

Instruments of Sasine no longer necessary, but Conveyances may be recorded instead.

I. From and after the First Day of October in the present Year, it shall not be necessary to expede and record an Instrument of Sasine on any Conveyance of Lands, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the Person or Persons in whose Favour the Conveyance is granted, instead of expeding and recording such Instrument of Sasine, to record the Conveyance itself in the Register of Sasines applicable to the Lands therein contained; and the Conveyance, being presented for Registration with a Warrant of Registration thereon, in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (A.) No. 1. hereto annexed, specifying the Person or Persons on whose Behalf it is so presented, and signed by such Person or Persons, or his or their Agent, and being so recorded along with such Warrant, shall have the same legal Force and Effect in all respects as if the Conveyance so recorded had been followed by an Instrument of Sasine duly expede and recorded at the Date of recording the said Conveyance, according to the present Law and Practice, in favour of the Person or Persons on whose Behalf the Conveyance is presented for Registration.

Not necessary to record the whole Conveyance.

II. Where a Conveyance of Lands shall be contained in a Deed granted for further Purposes and Objects, such as a Marriage Contract, Deed of Trust, or Deed of Settlement, it shall not be necessary to record the whole of such Deed, but it shall be competent and sufficient to expede and record in the appropriate Register of Sasines a Notarial Instrument setting forth generally the Nature of the Deed, and containing at length those Portions of the Deed by which the Lands are conveyed, and by which Real Burdens, Conditions, or Limitations are imposed; and where a Deed conveys separate Lands or separate Interests in the same Lands to the same or different Persons, it shall not be necessary to record the whole of such Deed, but it shall be competent and sufficient to expede and record as aforesaid a Notarial Instrument setting forth generally the Nature of the Deed, and containing at length the Part or Parts of the Deed by which particular Lands are conveyed to the Person or Persons in whose Favour the Notarial Instrument is expede, and the Part of the Deed which specifies the Nature and Extent of the Right and Interest of such Person or Persons, with the Real Burdens, Conditions, and Limitations, if any, and such Notarial Instrument shall be in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (B.) hereto annexed.

Clause directing Part of Conveyance to be recorded.

III. Immediately before the Testing Clause of any Conveyance it shall be competent to insert a Clause of Direction, in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (C.) hereto annexed, specifying the Part or Parts of the Conveyance which the Granter thereof desires to be recorded in the Register of Sasines, and when such Clause is so inserted the Keeper of the Register shall record such Part or Parts only, together with the Clause of Direction and the Testing Clause, and the recording of such Part or Parts of the Conveyance, together with the Clause of Direction and the Testing Clause, and the Warrant of Registration as before provided, shall have the same legal Force and Effect as if a Notarial Instrument containing such Part or Parts of the Conveyance had been duly expede and recorded in favour of the Party on whose Behalf the Conveyance is presented: Provided always, that, notwithstanding such Clause of Direction, it shall be competent for the Party entitled to present the Conveyance for Registration to record the whole Conveyance, or to expede and record a Notarial Instrument as herein-before provided, in the same Manner as if the Conveyance had contained no such Clause of Direction; and where a Notarial Instrument shall be expede as herein-before provided, no Part or Parts of the Conveyance directed to be recorded shall be omitted from such Instrument.

Instruments of Resignation ad remanentiam no longer necessary, but Conveyances in favour of Superior may be recorded instead.

IV. It shall not be necessary to expede and record an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam on any Procuratory of Resignation ad remanentiam, or on any Conveyance containing an express Clause of Resignation ad remanentiam, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the Superior in whose Favour the Resignation under such Procuratory or Conveyance is authorized to be made to record in the appropriate Register of Sasines such Procuratory or Conveyance, with a Warrant of Registration thereon, or to expede and record a Notarial Instrument as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (B.); and such Procuratory or Conveyance and Warrant, or such Notarial Instrument, being so recorded, shall have the same Effect as if an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam had been expede on such Procuratory or Conveyance, and had been recorded in the Register of Sasines, according to the present Law and Practice at the Date of recording such Procuratory or Conveyance or Instrument; and all Instruments of Resignation ad remanentiam may be in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (D.), and when in such Form may be recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines at any Time during the Life of the Party in whose Favour the Resignation is made, and the Date of Presentment and Entry set forth on any Instrument of Resignation in such Form by the Keeper of the Register shall be the Date of the Resignation and of the Instrument.

V. It

Certain Clauses no longer necessary in Conveyances.

V. It shall not be necessary to insert in any Conveyance a Clause of Obligation to infeft, or a Precept of Sasine or Warrant for Infeftment; and if the Lands shall be disponed to be holden a me only or a me vel de me, the Clause so expressing the Manner of holding shall imply that the Lands are to be holden in the Manner expressed in the Act Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Forty-eight, Section Two, with reference to Obligations to infeft a me or a me vel de me respectively; and where no holding is expressed the Conveyance shall be held to imply that the Lands are to be holden in the same Manner in which the Grantor of the Conveyance held or might have held the same; and a Clause of Resignation in any Conveyance shall be held to import a Resignation in favorem only, unless specially expressed to be a Resignation ad remanentiam: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent an Instrument of Resignation ad remanentiam being expede and recorded on a Conveyance heretofore granted, and containing a Clause of Resignation in the Form authorized by the Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Forty-eight.

Provision where Lands are held of the Crown, &c., and a Confirmation of a Deed, &c. required.

Provision where Lands are held of a Subject Superior, and a Confirmation of a Deed, &c. required.

of the last entered Vassal, and the Date of his Entry; and the Deed shall thereafter be delivered to the Party applying for the same, or his Agent, and the Deed, with the Writ of Resignation so written upon it, shall in all respects be as effectual as if a Charter of Resignation of the Lands had been duly obtained according to the present Law and Practice, and shall, to all Intents and Purposes, operate as a Confirmation of the whole prior Deeds and Instruments necessary to be confirmed in order to complete the Investiture of the Party obtaining such Writ; and it shall be competent to record in the appropriate Register of Sasines the Deed, with the Writ of Resignation written thereon, and Warrant of Registration also written thereon, and the recording of the same shall have the same legal Force and Effect in all respects as if a Charter of Resignation had been granted, and such Charter had been followed by an Instrument of Sasine duly expede and recorded at the Date of recording such Deed and Writ, according to the present Law and Practice, in favour of the Party on whose Behalf the Deed and Writ are presented for Registration: Provided always, that the recording of such Deed along with such Writ shall not have the Effect of an Instrument of Sasine following on such Deed.

IX. Where Lands are held of a Subject Superior, and a new Investiture by Resignation shall be required, it shall be competent for the Superior to grant in favour of the Party in right of the Deed which is the Warrant for Resignation a Writ of Resignation as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (F.), which shall be written on such Deed, and the Deed with the Writ of Resignation written thereon shall be to all Intents and Purposes as effectual as if a Charter of Resignation had been granted in the usual Form, according to the present Law and Practice, and the Superior shall be bound to grant such Writ of Resignation instead of a Charter of Resignation, if required so to do: Provided always, that the Party requiring such Writ shall be entitled to demand an Entry by Resignation, and shall, if required, produce to the Superior a Charter or other Writ showing the Tenendas and Reddendo of the Lands resigned, and shall also at the same Time pay or tender to the Superior such Duties or Casualties as he may be entitled to demand; and the Writ of Resignation shall to all Intents and Purposes operate as a Confirmation of the whole prior Deeds and Instruments necessary to be confirmed in order to complete the Investiture of the Party obtaining the Writ; and it shall be competent to record in the appropriate Register of Sasines the Deed with the Writ of Resignation written thereon, and Warrant of Registration also written thereon, and the recording of the same shall have the same legal Force and Effect in all respects as if a Charter of Resignation had been granted, and such Charter had been followed by an Instrument of Sasine duly expede and recorded at the Date of recording the said Deed and Writ, according to the present Law and Practice, in favour of the Party on whose Behalf the Deed and Writ are presented for Registration: Provided always, that the recording of such Deed along with such Writ shall have the Effect of an Instrument of Sasine following on such Deed.

As to Assignations to unrecorded Conveyances.

XIII. It shall be competent to any Party, in right of an unrecorded Conveyance, to assign the Conveyance in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (I.), No. 1., and the Assignation, or, in the event of there being more than One, the successive Assignations, may be recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines along with the Conveyance itself, and a Warrant of Registration thereon, in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (A.), No. 2., and it shall be competent to write the Assignation or Assignations on the Conveyance itself in or as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (I.), No. 2.; and the Conveyance, with such Warrant of Registration, along with the Assignation or Assignations, separate from or written upon the Conveyance, being so recorded, shall operate in favour of the Assignee on whose Behalf they are presented for Registration, as fully and effectually as if the Lands contained in the Assignation, or, if there be more than One, the last Assignation, had been disponed by the original Conveyance in favour of such Assignee, and the Conveyance, with the Warrant of Registration, had been recorded in the Manner herein-before provided of the Date of recording such Conveyance and Assignation or Assignations.

As to Notarial Instruments in favour of Parties acquiring Rights to unrecorded Conveyances.

with the Addition and Reference before provided, shall be held to be equivalent to the full Insertion of the particular Description contained in the several Conveyances or other Writs recorded and specified as aforesaid.

Several Lands conveyed by the same Deed may be comprehended under One general Name.

XVI. Where several Lands are comprehended in One Conveyance in favour of the same Person or Persons, it shall be competent to insert a Clause in the Conveyance declaring that the whole Lands conveyed, and therein particularly described, shall be designed and known in future by One general Name to be therein specified; and on the Conveyance containing such Clause being duly recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines, it shall be competent in all subsequent Conveyances or other Writs to use the general Name specified in such Clause as the Name of the several Lands declared by such Clause to be comprehended under it, and a Conveyance of such several Lands under the general Name so specified shall be as effectual in all respects as if the Conveyance contained a particular Description of each of such several Lands: Provided always, that Reference be made in such Conveyances and Instruments of Sasine and Notarial Instruments to a prior recorded Conveyance or Instrument of Sasine or Notarial Instrument or other Writ in which such Clause and Description are contained; provided also, that it shall not be necessary in such Clause to comprehend under One general Name the whole Lands contained in the Conveyance in which such Clause is inserted, but that it shall be competent to comprehend certain Lands under one general Name, and certain other Lands under another general Name, it being clearly specified what Lands are comprehended under each general Name; and such Clause of Reference shall be in or as nearly as may be in the Terms set forth in Schedule (L.), No. 2., hereto annexed.

Destinations in Entails may be referred to.

XVII. Where Lands are or shall hereafter be held under a Deed of Entail it shall not be necessary to repeat the Destination contained in such Entail at Length in the Conveyances, Instruments of Sasine, Notarial Instruments, or other Writs necessary to transmit, renew, or complete a Title under such Entail, but it shall be sufficient to refer to the Destination as set forth at full Length in the Deed of Entail recorded in the Register of Tailzies, if the same shall have been so recorded, or as set forth at full Length in any Conveyance, Instrument of Sasine, Notarial Instrument, or other Writ duly recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines forming Part of the Progress of Title Deeds of the Lands comprehended under the said Entail, such Reference being made in the Terms or as nearly as may be in the Terms set forth in Schedule (L.), No. 3., hereto annexed; and the Reference so made to such Destination shall be equivalent to the full Insertion thereof, and shall to all Intents and in all Questions whatever have the same legal Effect as if the Destination in the recorded Deed, Instrument, or other Writ referred to had been inserted at Length, notwithstanding any Law or Practice to the contrary, or any Injunction to the contrary contained in such Deed of Entail, and notwithstanding any Enactments or Provisions to the contrary contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, all which are hereby repealed, so far as inconsistent herewith, but no farther.

Certain Clauses in Entails no longer necessary.

XVIII. Where a Deed of Entail contains an express Clause authorizing Registration of the Deed in the Register of Tailzies it shall not be necessary to insert Clauses of Prohibition against Alienation, contracting Debt, and altering the Order of Succession, but such Clause of Registration shall have in every respect the same Operation and Effect as if such Clauses of Prohibition had been inserted according to the present Law and Practice, and duly fenced with irritant and resolutive Clauses.

Mode of relinquishing Superiorities.

XXIII. In order to facilitate the extinguishing of Midsuperiorities not defeasible by the Vassal it shall be competent to any Subject Superior, whether himself entered with his Superior or not, to relinquish his Right of Superiority in favour of his immediate Vassal, by granting a Deed of Relinquishment in the Form and as nearly as may be in the Terms of Schedule (N, No. 1.) hereto annexed; and on the Deed of Relinquishment being accepted by the Vassal by an Acceptance written on such Deed in the Terms set forth in the Schedule (N, No. 2.) hereto annexed, and being followed by a Writ of Investiture by the Oversuperior as herein-after provided, also written upon the Deed of Relinquishment, and on such Deed with the Acceptance and Writ of Investiture written thereon being thereafter recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines, the Superiority so relinquished shall be held to be extinguished, and the Vassal and his Successors in the Lands shall hold the same as immediate Vassals of the Oversuperior by the Tenure and for the Reddendo by and for which such relinquished Superiority was held, and the Vassal and his foresaids shall be entitled to apply for an Entry to such Oversuperior accordingly as his immediate Superior; and such Relinquishment by a Superior who shall not have completed his Title to the Superiority relinquished shall not infer a passive Representation on his Part, nor any Liability for the Debts of the Person last infeft therein, beyond the Price or Consideration, if any, which he may receive for such Relinquishment.

Investiture by Oversuperior.

XXIV. On the Application of the Vassal in the relinquished Superiority, and on Production by him of the Deed of Relinquishment, and Acceptance thereof, and on his paying or tendering such Duties and Casualties as may be exigible by the Oversuperior, the Oversuperior shall be bound to receive the Vassal as his immediate Vassal by Writ of Investiture in or as nearly as may be in the Form of the Schedule (N, No. 3.) to be written on the Deed of Relinquishment, and the Tenendas and Reddendo contained in the Title Deeds of the relinquished Superiority shall be inserted therein in room of those contained in the former Investiture held under the relinquished Superiority; and where the Lands are held of the Crown or of the Prince and Steward of Scotland such Writ of Investiture shall be obtained from the Presenter of Signatures in the same Manner as is herein-before directed in regard to Confirmations written on the Deeds confirmed: Provided always, that the Party applying for such Writ of Investiture shall lodge or cause to be lodged in the Office of the Presenter of Signatures a Draft of the proposed Writ, in the same Manner as when a Crown Charter or Precept is now applied for; and the Deed of Relinquishment, with the Acceptance and Writ of Investiture thereon, shall be officially transmitted to the Director of Chancery, and recorded in the same Manner in which Crown Charters are now in use to be recorded, and shall thereafter be delivered to the Vassal or his Agent on Payment of the same Fees as are now payable for recording a Charter in Chancery; and the Investiture completed upon such Relinquishment of the Superiority shall be as effectual as if the Granter of the Deed of Relinquishment had completed his Title to the Superiority, and had thereafter conveyed the same to the Vassal, and the latter, after having completed his Titles under the Oversuperior, had resigned ad remanentiam in his own Hands: Provided always, that the Investiture so completed shall not in any respect extend the Rights or Interests of such Oversuperior, and that he shall be entitled to no more than the Duties and Casualties, taxed or untaxed, to which he would have been entitled if the Granter of the Deed of Relinquishment had remained his Vassal.

XXV. Where

Application of Price of entailed Superiorities.

XXV. Where the Right of Superiority so relinquished shall form Part of an Estate held under a Deed of strict Entail, such Relinquishment shall not operate as a Contravention of such Entail, anything contained in the Deed of Entail or any Act of Parliament notwithstanding; and the Price agreed to be paid for such Superiority so relinquished, if any, shall be consigned by the Vassal in One of the Chartered Banks in Scotland, subject to the Orders of the Court of Session, and shall be applicable and applied in such and the like Manner and to such and the like Purposes as Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests is made applicable, under the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, or under the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-six, intituled An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland, or under an Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-four, intituled An Act to extend the Benefits of the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland; and for that Purpose it shall be competent to the Heir of Entail in possession to present a summary Petition to the Court of Session, praying to have the Price so applied, and such Petition shall set forth the Names, Designations, and Places of Abode of those Heirs of Entail whose Consents would be required to the Execution of an Instrument of Disentail; and on such Petition being served on such Parties, and being intimated in the Minute Book and on the Walls in common Form, it shall be competent for the Court to direct the Price to be applied to such of the said Purposes as may appear to them to be most expedient: Provided always, that where the Sums agreed to be paid for all the Superiorities which form Part of an entailed Estate shall not exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds such Sums shall belong to the Heir in possession, and the Court shall direct such Sums to be paid to him: Provided also, that the Price of such Superiorities may be applied by the Heir in Possession to such Purposes and in such Manner as may be authorized by any Private Act of Parliament authorizing the Sale of the entailed Estate or any Portion thereof, and the Application of the Price thereof.

Price of Superiorities of entailed Lands may be charged on the entailed Estate.

XXVI. Where the Lands of which the Superiority is so relinquished shall be held by the Vassal under a Deed of strict Entail, the Vassal in such Lands shall be entitled and he is hereby authorized to grant a Bond and Disposition in Security over the entailed Estate for the full Amount of the Price paid for the relinquished Superiority, together with all Expenses incurred in the relative Proceedings, including the estimated Expense of such Bond and Disposition in Security, and his granting such Bond and Disposition in Security shall not operate as a Contravention of such Entail, anything contained in the Deed of Entail or any Act of Parliament notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Bond and Disposition in Security shall be granted with the Consent of those Heirs of Entail whose Consents would be required to the Execution of an Instrument of Disentail of the Lands, or under the Authority of a Judicial Warrant or Decree of the Court of Session pronounced on a summary Petition by the Heir of Entail in possession praying for such Warrant; and the Proceedings under such Petition shall be the same or as nearly as may be the same as the Proceedings under a Petition to charge an entailed Estate with Provisions to younger Children, as authorized by the said Acts of the Eleventh and Twelfth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-six, and Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-four: Provided always, that it shall not be necessary that such Petition should be publicly advertised in the Gazette or any Newspaper, but that Service and Intimation only shall be made in common Form.

Diligence against Apparent Heirs.

XXVII. In Actions of Constitution and Adjudication against an Apparent Heir on account of his Ancestor's Debt or Obligation, for the Purpose of attaching the Ancestor's Heritable Estate, it shall not be necessary to raise a separate Summons of Constitution and a separate Summons of Adjudication, but both Actions may be combined in One Summons, whether the Heir renounce the Succession or not; and Actions of Constitution, and Actions of Constitution and Adjudication, against an Apparent Heir, on account of his Ancestor's Debt or Obligation, for the Purpose of attaching the Ancestor's Heritable Estate, and Actions of Adjudication against such Heir on account of his own Debt or Obligation, for the Purpose of attaching such Estate, may be insisted in at any Time after the Lapse of Six Months from the Date of his becoming Apparent Heir, any Law or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding; and in all such Cases a Decree of Adjudication shall be held equivalent to and shall have the legal Operation and Effect of a Conveyance from such Ancestor of the Lands adjudged in favour of the Adjudger, to be holden in the same Manner as the Ancestor held or might have held the same, except in the Case where the Subjects contained in the Decree of Adjudication are Heritable Securities, in which Case the Adjudger or other Party in right of the Decree on recording the Decree in the appropriate Register of Sasines shall be in the same Position as if an Assignation of such Heritable Securities had been granted in his Favour by the Ancestor whose Estate is adjudged, and as if such Assignation had been duly recorded in the appropriate Register of Sasines at the Date of recording such Decree; but the Right of the Superior to the Composition payable by an Adjudger as due under the existing Law is hereby reserved entire, and the Adjudger by recording the Decreet of Adjudication in the Register of Sasines, and such Adjudger or any Person in his Right by expeding and recording in such Register a Notarial Instrument proceeding on such Decreet, with or without any connecting Title, in virtue of this Act, shall become indebted in such Composition to the Superior, and shall be bound to pay the same on the Superior tendering a Charter of Confirmation, whether such Charter shall be accepted or not, and the Superior shall be entitled to recover such Composition as accords of Law.

XXVIII. Where

Prohibition against Subinfeudation not to be affected.

XXVIII. Where the Investiture of any Lands has imposed or shall impose a Prohibition against Subinfeudation or against alternative holding, nothing contained in this Act shall operate to authorize Subinfeudation or an alternative holding in respect to such Lands; and nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to take away or impair any of the Rights or Remedies competent to a Superior against his Vassal lying out unentered.

Obligations appointed to be inserted in Instruments of Sasine shall be inserted in Notarial Instruments.

and Copies thereof shall be deposited as herein-before directed concerning the said Maps or Plans and Schedules as aforesaid; and the Valuator shall cause Notice of such Draft Award to be given to all Persons entitled to Payment under the same, where such Persons may be known to the Valuator, or who shall have been heard before such Valuator as Claimants for Compensation, and shall also cause Notice to be published of such Draft Award once in the Dublin Gazette, and once in each of Two successive Weeks in some One and the same Newspaper circulated in the County of the City of Dublin, and shall in such Notices appoint a Time and Place or Times and Places for holding a Meeting or Meetings to hear Objections against any such Draft Award (the First such Meeting to be not earlier than Ten Days after the First Day of Publication of the said Notice), and shall hold such Meeting or Meetings accordingly, and thereat hear and determine any Objections which may then and there be made to any such Draft Award by any Person interested therein, or adjourn the further Hearing thereof, if the Valuator shall think fit, to a future Meeting, and may take any Measures which he may deem proper for ascertaining the Value of any such Rights or Interests as aforesaid, or the Justice or Propriety of any other Matter of such Draft Award, and may from Time to Time, if he shall see Occasion so to do, appoint and hold further Meetings for hearing and determining Objections to any such Draft Award; and when the Valuator has heard and determined all such Objections, and made such Inquiries as he may think necessary in relation thereto, and made such Alterations (if any) as he may deem proper in the Draft Award, he shall make his Award under his Hand and Seal accordingly, and every such Award shall be binding and conclusive, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, upon all Persons whomsoever, and no such Award shall be set aside for Irregularity in Matter of Form; and a Copy of every such Award shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of the City of Dublin, and the Commissioners shall thereupon publish Notice in some Paper circulated in the County of the City of Dublin once in each of Two successive Weeks of the Deposit of such Award as aforesaid, and requiring all Persons claiming to have any Right to or Interest in the Lands, the Price or Compensation to be paid in respect of which is ascertained by such Award, to deliver to the Commissioners, on or before a Day to be named in such Notice (such Day not being earlier than Seven Days from the Date of the last Publication of the Notice), a short Statement in Writing of the Nature of such Claim, and a short Abstract of the Title on which the same is founded.

Clerk of Peace to take charge of Documents, as provided by 7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 83.

XXIII. The Clerk of the Peace aforesaid is hereby required to retain the Documents to be deposited with him under this Act in his Custody, and to permit all Persons interested to inspect the same, and to make Copies and Extracts of and from the same in the like Manner, and upon the like Terms, and under the like Penalty for Default, as is provided by an Act of the Session holden in the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth and First Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Valuator, where he thinks fit, upon the Request of any Party by whom any Claim has been made before him, to certify the Amount of the Costs properly incurred by such Party in relation to the Valuation, and the Amount of the Costs so certified shall be paid by the Commissioners.

Receipts duly stamped to act as a Conveyance.

XXVI. In every Case in which any Monies are paid by the Commissioners under the Provisions of this Act for such Price or Compensation as aforesaid, the Party receiving such Monies may give to the Commissioners a Receipt for the same, and such Receipt shall have the Effect of a Grant, Release, and Conveyance of all the Estate, Right, and Interest of such Party, and of all Parties claiming under or through him, in the Lands in respect of which such Monies are paid, so as such Receipt shall have an ad valorem Stamp of the same Amount impressed thereon in respect of the Purchase Monies mentioned therein as would have been necessary if such Receipt had been an actual Conveyance of such Estate, Right, or Interest; and every such Receipt shall be prepared by and at the Costs of the Commissioners.

Payment of Monies where Parties making Claim deemed not entitled, or are under Disability, or Title not satisfactorily deduced.

XXVII. If it appear to the Commissioners from any such Statement and Abstract as aforesaid, or otherwise, that the Party making any such Claim as aforesaid is not absolutely entitled to the Lands, Estate, Right, or Interest in respect of which his Claim is made, or is under any Disability, or if the Title to such Lands, Estate, Right, or Interest be not satisfactorily deduced to the Commissioners free from Incumbrance, then and in every such Case the Amount to be paid by the Commissioners in respect of such Lands, Estate, Right, or Interest as aforesaid shall be paid and applied as provided by the Clauses of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests, or prevented from treating or not making Title.

Commissioners may require further Evidence of Title at their own Costs.

XXVIII. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioners from requiring any further Abstract or Evidence of Title respecting any Lands included in such Award as aforesaid in addition to the Abstract or Statement herein-before mentioned, if they think fit, so as the same be obtained at the Costs of the Commissioners.

If either Party dissatisfied with Award

As to Travelling Expenses of Voters.

I. It shall be lawful for any Candidate, or his Agent by him appointed in Writing according to the Provisions of the first-mentioned Act, to provide Conveyance for any Voter for the Purpose of polling at an Election and not otherwise, but it shall not be lawful to pay any Money or give any valuable Consideration to a Voter for or in respect of his Travelling Expenses for such Purpose; provided always, that a full, true, and particular Account of all Payments made for such Conveyance, signed by the Candidate or his Agents, shall be delivered to the Election Auditor, with the Names and Addresses of the Persons to whom such Payments have been made; and the Amount of such Account shall be included in the general Account of the Expenses incurred at any Election to be made out and kept by such Election Auditor.

C A P. LXXXVIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Civil Bills and the Courts of Quarter Sessions in Ireland, and to transfer to the Assistant Barristers certain Jurisdiction as to Insolvent Debtors. [2d August 1858.]

14 & 15 Vict. c. 57.

'WHEREAS by the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-seven, it was enacted, that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland might nominate and appoint to the Office of Assistant Barrister for each and every County and Riding in Ireland a practising Barrister-at-Law of Ten Years standing at the least, who shall have actually practised Ten Years in Her Majesty's Superior Courts in Dublin, and shall not at the Time of his Appointment to such Office have retired from such Practice; and that every Assistant Barrister so appointed should hold his Office during good Behaviour, but that 'it

'it should be lawful for Her Majesty to remove any such Assistant Barrister from his Office upon the 'Address of both Houses of Parliament; and that such Assistant Barristers should severally receive 'the annual Salaries in the Schedule to the said Act mentioned, according to the Classification of the 'County to which he was appointed; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty to grant to any 'Person who shall have executed the Office of Assistant Barrister, and who shall have resigned the 'same, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds, provided he shall have continued 'in Office Twenty Years, or be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the due 'Execution of his Office: And whereas the said Annuity or Pension is disproportionate to the Salaries 'and Services of the Assistant Barrister of First and Second Class Counties, and by reason thereof no 'adequate Provision can be made for such of the Assistant Barristers as by reason of their advanced 'Age and lengthened Services may have become unable to discharge the Duties of their Office with 'the necessary Diligence and Efficiency, whereby the due Administration of Justice in the County 'Courts in Ireland is greatly hindered:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Successors, by any Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to grant to any Person who shall have executed the Office of Assistant Barrister, within the Meaning of the said recited Act, for any County or Riding of a County in Ireland, and who shall have resigned the same, or been removed from the same for Infirmity, in manner herein-after mentioned, an Annuity or yearly Sum not exceeding Two Thirds of the annual Salary or Salaries or Emoluments to which the Person so resigning shall have been entitled immediately before his Resignation, the said Annuity or yearly Sum to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that no such Annuity or yearly Sum of Money shall be granted to any Assistant Barrister unless he shall have continued in Office Twenty Years, or be afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, the same to be distinctly recited in such Grant.

Power to remove Assistant Barristers on Certificate of Lord Chancellor for Inability.

II. "The Manchester Overseers Act, 1858."

Whereas the Township of Manchester, the Township of Ardwick, the Township of Chorlton-upon-Medlock, and the Township of Hulme are contiguous, and contain a very large Population: And whereas by reason of such Population it is expedient that further Powers should be given to the Overseers of each of the said Townships in respect of the Rates levied by them, and that the Overseers of the said Townships should be invested with some of the Incidents of a Corporation, with a view of enabling them to take Securities, and do other official Acts: And whereas by Section CXXXVIII. of "The Manchester General Improvement Act, 1851," it is enacted, that no Land, Building, or Tenement in the Township of Manchester vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Manchester, now the City of Manchester, and held by them in trust for the said Township, should at any Time after the passing of the Act now in recital be charged or rated in or by any Rate or Assessment made under the Provisions of the Act now in recital, or for the Relief of the Poor of the said Township, or in or by any other Rate or Assessment of the Denomination usually called Parochial: And whereas certain Gasworks established under the Local and Personal Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and thirty-three, and intituled "An Act for the "better lighting of the Town of Manchester, in the County "Palatine of Lancaster," have by virtue of divers Acts of Parliament become vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Manchester upon Trust for the said Township of Manchester: And whereas the City of Manchester includes divers other Townships besides the Township of Manchester: And whereas the said Gasworks have been extended so as to include divers other Townships besides the Township of Manchester: And whereas the Council of the City of Manchester have for some Years past and do now apply Portions of the Moneys arising from the said Gasworks in and towards the Improvement of the several other Townships comprised within the said City; and the said Council are assessed to and pay Rates in such Townships in respect of such Part of the said Gasworks and Buildings and Property connected therewith as is situate within such Townships; and it is desirable that the Township of Manchester should have the like Power and Privilege of rating the said Gasworks as the said other Townships, inasmuch as the Profits arising from such Gasworks are not wholly applied as formerly in and towards the Improvement of the Township of Manchester: And whereas the aforesaid Objects cannot be carried into effect without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Manchester Overseers Act, 1858."

II. This Act shall apply only to the following Townships; that is to say, the Township of Manchester, the Township of Ardwick, the Township of Chorlton-upon-Medlock, and the Township of Hulme.

III. The Term "Rate" as used in this Act shall mean any Rate now leviable or that may hereafter be leviable by the Overseers of the Townships to which this Act applies, or any of them.

IV. Where anything is hereby authorized to be done in respect of the doing of which Powers are given by some other Act of Parliament, the Powers hereby given shall be deemed to be cumulative, and not to take away such other Powers.

V. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, at their Special Sessions for Appointment of Overseers of the Poor of the Township of Manchester, to appoint any Person who shall be rated to the Relief of the Poor of the Township at the rateable Value of Forty Pounds and upwards to be an Overseer of the Poor thereof, although the Person so to be appointed shall not be a Householder within the Township; and it shall be sufficient in every such Appointment to describe such Person by his Name and Residence; provided that no Person who is not a Householder within the Township shall be appointed to or be compellable to serve the Office of Overseer unless he shall have consented to such Appointment.

VI. The Justices shall hereafter appoint Eight Overseers for the Township of Manchester, and Six Overseers for each of the other Townships above mentioned; and the Overseers of each of the Townships to which this Act applies, and their Successors, herein-after respectively referred to as "the Overseers," shall be incorporated under the Name of the Township to which such Overseers belong, for the Purpose of entering into or taking any Contract or Security that may be entered into or taken by or with them in their Character of Overseers, and they shall, for the Purposes aforesaid, have a Common Seal, and a Capacity to sue and be sued in their corporate Name respectively, and for all the several Purposes mentioned in this Act shall sit as a Board, so that there shall be a Majority of the Overseers always present at the Meeting at which any Act shall be done; and they shall choose One of themselves to preside thereat, who, in case of an Equality of Votes at any Meeting, shall have a Second or Casting Vote; and such Overseers may from Time to Time appoint such Clerks, Surveyors, and Servants to aid them in the Discharge of their Duty, with such Salaries as the Poor Law Board shall from Time to Time sanction, and pay the same out of the Poor Rate, all such Clerks, Surveyors, and Servants being liable to the same Responsibility as Officers appointed under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six.

VII. If at the Time of making any Rate any Premises situate within the Area for which such Rate is made are unoccupied, such Premises shall be included in the Rate, but the Rate shall not be charged upon any Person in respect of the same whilst they continue to be unoccupied; but if any such Premises are afterwards occupied during any Part of the Period for which the Rate was made, and before the same has been fully paid, the Name of the incoming Tenant shall be inserted in the Rate, and thereupon so much of the Rate as at the Commencement of his Tenancy may be in proportion to the Remainder of the said Period shall be collected, recovered, and paid, in the same Manner in all respects as if the Premises had been occupied at the Time when the Rate was made; and in case of Dispute between the Overseers and such Occupier, the Proportion to be paid by such Occupier shall be ascertained by any Two or more Justices having Jurisdiction in the Matter of the Rate, and shall be settled by their Order.

VIII. And whereas by reason of the large Amount of Property of small annual Value in the several Townships to which this Act relates, it is desirable that Power should be given to the Overseers of the said Townships to rate and compound with the Owners of Cottages or Dwelling Houses the annual rateable Value of which shall not exceed Ten Pounds: Be it enacted, That, where any Cottage or Dwelling House is assessed to the Rate for the Relief of the Poor at a yearly rateable Value not exceeding Ten Pounds, the Overseers shall assess the Owner of such Cottage or Dwelling House instead of the Occupier; and if such Owner shall be willing to compound in respect of all the Cottages and Dwelling Houses of which he shall be Owner, or of any certain Number thereof, and to pay the Rates upon the same, whether they be occupied or otherwise, he may agree with the Overseers for Payment of a Sum less than the Rate thereon, so that they do not accept for any such Composition less than One Half of the whole Rate, and any Owner so compounding shall be rated in respect of the Premises for which he has compounded, and shall be liable to pay the Amount of the Composition agreed to when demanded by the Overseers; and if he makes default in Payment of such Sum on Demand, the same may be levied upon and Payment thereof be enforced against such Owner and his Goods and Chattels in like Manner as Rates for the Relief of the Poor may be by Law levied and recovered, and Payment thereof enforced against any Occupier.

IX. Where any Dwelling House, Warehouse, Mill, or other Tenement is let by the Owner or sublet by any Tenant in separate Apartments or separate Storehouses, the Overseers shall rate the Owner of such Dwelling House, Warehouse, Mill, or other Tenement, or the Party so subletting the same, as the Case may be, instead of the Occupiers of the separate Parts.

X. Where any Owner or the Party so subletting, as the Case may be, is rated in respect of any Premises instead of the Occupier, he shall have the like Powers of Appeal in respect of the Rate assessed on him, and be subject to the same Penalties for Nonpayment of such Rate, as if he were the Occupier of the Premises in respect of which he is rated.

XI. For the Purposes of this Act any Person shall be deemed to be the Owner of a Dwelling House or Tenement who receives or claims to receive Rent from the Occupier thereof, either on behalf of himself or as Agent or Trustee for any other Person.

XII. Where the Name of any Owner or Occupier liable to pay a Rate is not known to the Overseers, it shall be sufficient to assesss and designate him in the Rate as the Owner or Occupier of the Premises in respect of which the Assessment is made without any further Description.

XIII. The Occupier of any House of which the Owner is rated instead of himself, under the Authority of this Act, may at any Time claim of the Overseers, by Notice in Writing, to be rated in his own Name, and if at that Time there be no Rate due, or if he pay the Rate then due in respect of such House, the Overseers shall place or retain, as the Case may require, his Name on the Rate, and he shall for all Purposes be deemed to have been rated from the Time of his making such Claim.

XIV. No Owner shall be assessed in respect of any increased Rent which may become payable to him by reason of his having compounded for or become liable as Owner to pay any Rate.

XV. Where any Owner has entered into a Composition with the Overseers in respect of the Rate on any Premises, or has been rated by the Overseers in respect of any Premises instead of the Occupier, and makes default in paying the Amount of any Composition or the Amount of any Rate due from him, such Amount may be levied upon and Payment thereof enforced against the Occupier of any such Premises and his Goods and Chattels, in like Manner as if the same were a Rate for the Relief of the Poor due from such Occupier, with this Limitation, that no Occupier shall be liable to pay on account of any Owner any Sum exceeding the Rent or Proportion of Rent for the Time being due to such Owner, and subject to this Proviso that any Occupier may, in the Absence of any Agreement to the contrary, deduct the Sum so paid by him from any Rent due or to accrue due to such Owner; and the Receipt of the Overseers for any Rate paid by the Occupier under the Circumstances mentioned in this Section shall, to the Extent of the Moneys therein expressed to be paid, be a Discharge as against such Owner of an equivalent Amount of Rent.

XVI. The Overseers may from Time to Time amend any Rate made by them in manner following:

By inserting therein the Name of any Person who ought to have been rated, or who ought to be rated at the Time of the making of such Amendment, or by striking out the Name of any Person who ought not to be rated:

By raising or reducing the Sum at which any Person is rated:

By altering the Description of the Property in respect of which any Person is rated:

By inserting the Description of any new Property in respect of which any Person ought to be rated:

And such Amendment may be made by the Overseers on their own Motion, or on the Application of any other Person, and when made shall operate as if it had been Part of the original Rate.

XVII. Notice of any intended Amendment to be made by the Overseers in a Rate shall be served on the Owner or Occupier in respect of whose Property the Amendment is proposed to be made, and he may appear before the Overseers and object thereto if he think proper, and the Overseers shall hear his Objection and determine its Validity, and either abandon the proposed Amendment or make it, as shall seem to them to be required in the Case; and where the Name of any Person assessed is struck out of the Rate, or the Assessment on any Property therein is reduced, public Notice shall be forthwith given in some Newspaper circulating in the City of Manchester, and any Person who feels aggrieved by such Amendment may appeal therefrom to the next Special Sessions for hearing Appeals against the Rates of the Township, in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions as to giving Notice and otherwise, in and subject to which he might have appealed if the Matter of the Amendment had appeared on or been omitted from the Rate originally made.

XVIII. Nothing herein contained shall alter or affect any Lease, Contract, or Agreement made or entered into between any Owner and Occupier before the passing of this Act.

§§ 19, 20. Service of Summons; Notices.

XXI. The Overseers shall make out and balance their Rate Books, and deposit the same for Inspection on or before the Twenty-ninth of September in every Year, but they shall not be required to balance the same more frequently, nor in any Rate Books so deposited to balance any Rate made within Four Months before the Twenty-ninth of September of the current Year: Provided always, that the Overseers shall make out and balance all other Accounts, Balance Sheets, and Books of Account, Receipts and Payments, at the Time and in the Manner required by Law, and that nothing shall prevent any Assistant Overseer or Collector from rendering his Accounts and showing his Balances at the Time and in manner prescribed by the Orders and Regulations of the Poor Law Board.

XXII. In order to enable the Overseers to make a full and fair Assessment of the rateable Property within their Township, they may, whenever they think it expedient, by Summons under their Hands, require such Number of Persons rated to the Relief of the Poor of their Township at a yearly Rental of not less than Twenty Pounds, and not entitled to Exemption from serving as Jurors, as they think fit, to appear before them at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons.

XXIII. The Time named in the Summons shall not be less than Eight Days nor more than Fourteen Days from the Date thereof, and the Place therein named shall be situate within the City of Manchester.

XXIV. If any Person so summoned to appear before the Overseers makes default in appearing at the Time and Place named in such Summons without sufficient Excuse, to be allowed in manner herein-after mentioned, the Person so in default shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XXV. At the Time and Place named in the Summons the Overseers shall by Warrant under their Hands appoint such Number as they think fit of the Persons summoned, whether they appeared or not in obedience to the Summons, to act as Assessors of any Rate about to be imposed on their Township, but no Person shall be compelled to serve as such Assessor more than once in Five Years.

XXVI. The Warrant shall name a Time and Place for the Assessors therein named to appear before the Overseers, and bring in their Assessments in Writing.

XXVII. If any Person appointed to be Assessor, without sufficient Excuse to be allowed in manner herein-after mentioned, refuses to serve as Assessor, or neglects to perform his Duty as Assessor, or fails to bring in his Return at the Time and Place named in the Warrant, he shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XXVIII. The Overseers shall have Power to allow any Excuse made by a Person seeking to be relieved from the Duties imposed on him by this Act in respect of the Assessment of Rates.

XXIX. All Penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary Manner.

XXX. Section CXXXVIII. of "The Manchester General Improvement Act, 1851," so far as relates to any Rate leviable by the Overseers, and all other Provisions whatsoever exempting the Buildings, Lands, and Properties that formerly belonged to the Gas Directors therein mentioned, but which are now vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Manchester, from Liability to be rated to any Rate leviable by the Overseers of the Township of Manchester, shall be repealed, and the Council shall be liable to be assessed and rated in respect of such Buildings, Lands, and Properties in like Manner as if such Provisions had not been enacted, but no further or otherwise.

"The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway Act, 1858."

Recites the several Acts relating to the Company, and especially their Acts of 1853, 1854, and 1855; that by the Act of 1854 the Company are empowered to make Deviations in the Lines and Levels of certain Branch Railways to the Towns of Stratford-upon-Avon and Stourbridge, but were by the Twelfth Section of such Act prohibited from expending any Money upon such Construction until they had completed their Main Line throughout with a Double Line of Rails; that the Company have hitherto been prevented by the Operation of such Section from proceeding with the Construction of the Stratford and Stourbridge Branches, and they are bound to complete such Branches on or before the 31st July 1859; and it is expedient that they should be authorized to make a Deviation in the Line and Levels of the Stourbridge Branch, and that the Restriction upon the Application of their Funds to the Purposes of that Branch and of the Stratford Branch should be removed, and the Time for the Completion of the Stratford Branch be extended: And whereas by the Act of 1855 the Company were authorized to make and maintain a Railway in lieu of Part of the Branch called the Kingswinford Branch, and also a Branch Railway called the Diglis Branch, described in such Act as commencing by a Junction with the Main Line of the Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway in the Parish of Saint Martin, in the County of Worcester, and terminating at or near the River Severn, on the Left Bank thereof in the Parish of St. Peter; that the Stourbridge Extension Canal belongs to the Company, and passes through the District through which also a Portion of the Kingswinford Branch is authorized to be made, and the Company are about to construct Works with the view to the more efficient Interchange of Traffic between the Canal and the Part of the Kingswinford Branch now in the course of Construction; that the Diglis Branch will to a great Extent be rendered unnecessary by the Worcester and Hereford Railway now in the course of Construction and by other Circumstances; that the Company, in order to avoid at the present Time a large Expenditure of Capital for Objects which will be in great measure accomplished by other Means, are desirous of being relieved from the Obligation of constructing the Diglis Branch, and so much of the Kingswinford Branch as is herein-after specified; that by the Act of 1855 the Company were empowered, either previously or subsequent to the Completion of their Purchase of the Stratford-upon-Avon Canal Navigation, which Purchase was authorized by "The Oxford, Worcester, and Wolverhampton Railway (Amendment) Act, 1846," to agree with any Shareholder in the Canal for a fixed annual Rentcharge or Annuity to be charged and chargeable as therein mentioned, in lieu of a Payment of a Sum in gross in respect of his Interest in the Purchase Money of the Canal; that such Purchase has been duly completed, and the Company have duly paid in Cash the Sum of 14,040*l.*, (Part of the Sum of 108,330*l.* the settled Price for the Canal, as the aggregate Amount of the Purchase Money,) at the Rate of 30*l.* per Share for 468 Shares in the Canal, of which Shares the Holders did not agree with the Company for Rentcharges in lieu of the Payment of Sums in gross, or of which the Proprietors were not known or could not be found, or in respect of which no Claim was made or no Person was competent to give a Discharge; that the Company arranged and agreed with the Holders of 3,143 Shares in the Canal interested as such in the Purchase Money thereof to the aggregate Amount of 94,290*l.* (the Residue of the said Sum of 108,330*l.*) for fixed annual Rentcharges or Annuities in lieu of the Payment of Sums in gross; and the Company have accordingly granted to such Shareholders respectively Rentcharges or Annuities at the Rate of 30*s.* of annual Payment for the 30*l.* to which, as provided by the Twenty-second Section of the Act of 1855, the said Shareholders were to be deemed entitled for each Share held by them respectively in the Canal upon the Division of the Purchase Money payable for the same; that the aforesaid Rentcharges respectively have been duly granted by Deed, under the Seal of the Company, in the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act; and in most instances the Rentcharge granted by each such Deed as aforesaid has been of the Amount of 7*l.* 10*s.*, being an annual Rentcharge at the Rate aforesaid, in respect of Five Shares in the Canal, and such Deed contains certain Powers of Redemption as therein set forth; that the Holders of the Second Guaranteed Stock of the Company are entitled to a Dividend of 6*l.* per Centum per Annum, and all or any Arrears now existing or which may accrue due in respect of such Stock are payable out of the future Revenue of the Company, in preference to any Payments upon the ordinary Stock, and such Arrears, up to the 31st December 1858, are estimated at the Sum of 21*l.* 16*s.* 1*d.* per Centum, subject to Reduction by the Amount of any Dividend payable in respect of the Year 1858; that there are in the Hands of the Company forfeited and unissued Shares, representing a Sum of 99,500*l.* of the ordinary Stock of the Company; that it is probable that the Company will, from and after the 31st December 1858, be able to pay the future Dividends on the Second Guaranteed Stock, but no Dividend having been paid, or being likely (by reason of the Arrears on the Second Guaranteed Stock) to be paid, on the ordinary Stock, such last-mentioned Shares cannot be disposed of, except at a Price far below the nominal Value thereof; that it would facilitate the financial Arrangements of the Company if the Company were authorized to agree in manner herein-after mentioned with the Holders of the Second Guaranteed Stock, with respect to the Mode of Liquidation or Extinction of such Arrears of Dividend; and that it is expedient that the Acts relating to the Company be amended and enlarged.

Vestry on the Order of the Board, as though they were Rates made by the Vestry and collected by their Order.

LXXV. Every such Occupier who pays any such Rate, or on whom it is levied, may from Time to Time, unless there be an Agreement between Landlord and Tenant to the contrary, deduct the Amount thereof from the Rent due and payable from him to his Landlord of the Tenement, and the Receipt for the Payment shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Occupier for so much of his Rent, and to his Landlord for so much of the Rates.
